remarks or comments; information that could be used to discriminate against the job seeker; inaccurate work history; education history, experience, licenses, certificates, etc., duplicate records when matching job listings, WorkSource Oregon staff and employers are prohibited from using disability information or medical-related history as a basis of determining if an applicant can perform the essential functions of a job. Do not include disability information or medical-related history in any part of your iMatchSkills registration information. To keep your iMatchSkills status active, you must at least logon every 90 days or contact a WorkSource Oregon office; your iMatchSkills account will automatically be inactivated after three months of inactivity. Inactive job seekers may perform job matches on their own but will not be included in any job matches performed by WorkSource Oregon staff or employers. You may reactivate your account at any time.

WorkSource Oregon Privacy Statement

Privacy Statement

State and Federal law requires the protection and privacy of your records. The WorkSource Oregon is committed to protecting the privacy of our system users, and to providing a safe and secure user experience. WorkSource Oregon is requesting that you provide your Social Security Number (SSN) for the purpose of serving you more effectively. If you do so, your SSN will be used for keeping records, doing research and planning. Your SSN will not be given to the general public. Providing your SSN means that you consent to the use of the number in the manner described above. If you do not provide your SSN, this will not be used as a basis to deny you any services provided by WorkSource Oregon. Authority to request the use of your Social Security Number is established under OAR 471-010-0100(2). Other programs may request or require you to give your SSN as a condition of obtaining services. These programs will separately inform you of this if you apply for their services.

Job seeker information (including your social security number, address, work history, wage information, and unemployment insurance claim information), may be shared in the delivery of workforce programs with WorkSource Oregon agencies and partners that have entered into agreements with the Oregon Employment Department regarding the provision of services and use of personal information. State and Federal laws protect the privacy of this information and those WorkSource Oregon agencies and partners are required to safeguard and not further disclose this information.
