Public Comment Topic	Pacific City Airport Funding
Public Comment	As a pilot who has made multiple trips to Oregon by small plane, I have found Oregon's system of State Airports to be a true treasure. Pacific City Airport is one of the jewels in that treasure. It would be foolish to not take the opportunity to fund meaningful infrastructure repairs and improvements to ensure the airport can remain viable and usable. It is exceptionally unique to have an airport that is so convenient to the local shops, restaurants, and other accommodations of the local community. That feature is its strength not its weakness. As an out of state commenter who travels to Oregon by small specifically to visit Oregons many amazing small airports, please take this comment serious; Pacific City Airport is known well beyond Oregon and to inhibit its success would also become well known and be made an example of poor decision making.
