

Oregon Rule & Law for Electricians

The following is the basis from which providers of an Oregon Rule & Law course may define their course and tailor for a specific audience. The approval procedure for continuing education courses are found in OAR 918-035-0070(1)(a) through (k).

Course Description

The Oregon Rule & Law course covers all pertinent statutes, rules, code changes and provisions, scope of license, permit procedures and requirements, and Oregon amendments to the particular specialty code (OAR 918-035-0070(1)(a)).

Detailed Course Outline / Contents

The 4-hour Oregon Rule and Law course fulfills continuing education requirements for electrical licensees. The Electrical & Elevator Board has established the course content requirements for Oregon Rule and Law for Electricians (OAR 918-035-0070(1)(b)).

	Oregon Code Changes.	150 minutes
	Statewide Code Interpretations.	20 minutes
	Appeals Process.	15 minutes
	Location of Electrical Requirements.	35 minutes
	Breaks (2x10 min.)	20 minutes
Course Subject Matter Time Allotment		240 minutes (4 hours)

Oregon Rule and Law Subject Matter Outline

Oregon Electrical Specialty Code Changes (150 minutes)	Process to find code changes. Oregon-specific code changes in Table 1-E
Statewide Code Interpretations (20 minutes)	Explanation of statewide interpretations. Explanation of electrical licensing clarifications. Explanation of statewide alternate methods. Applicability of statewide interpretations to the code. Process to find statewide code interpretations. Process to request a code interpretation.

Appeals Process

(15 minutes)

How do electricians and contractors request clarification on a code call?

Informal process.

Formal process.

Code appeal process.

Administrative appeal process.

Location of Electrical Requirements

(35 minutes)

Explanation of process to find Oregon statute, administrative rule, electrical code, code interpretations, etc. and how these requirements relate to each other.

Explanation of electrical permit requirements and exemptions.

Clarification of electrical licensing and exemptions.

Review of enforcement case studies.

Process to find Electrical & Elevator Board actions.
