To whom it may concern:

The Oregon Board of Licensed Social Workers confirms the following information pertaining to Licensed Clinical Social Workers, Clinical Social Work Associates, Licensed Master's Social Workers, and Registered Baccalaureate Social Workers:

- If a practitioner's license has expired, they cannot legally practice clinical social work. LMSWs and RBSWs are not authorized to practice clinical social work. A practitioner's license expires 30 days after their renewal date.
- Prior to issuing a license, the Board primary source verifies that education was successfully completed.
- Prior to issuing a license, the Board primary source verifies that supervision and experience hours were successfully completed, if required.

The information obtained through primary source verification is true and complete to the best of our knowledge. Please contact me if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Raymond Miller,
Executive Director
Oregon BLSW
