

For Immediate Release

August 29, 2016

CONTACT: Charlie Burr, (971) 673-0788

Oregon coast employment law seminars will help businesses navigate new workplace rules
New seminars will focus on employment law updates, new supervisor trainings

PORTLAND, OR—The Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI) will hold a series of employment law seminars on the Oregon Coast focused on updates to sick time, minimum wage and other workplace rules so that employers can understand and comply with new requirements.

The employment law update seminars will cover both recent and soon-to-take-effect laws, including sick time, minimum wage, ban the box, paycheck transparency, social media privacy and federal overtime changes.

Coos Bay: Employment Law Update

Where: South Coast ESD
Conference Room
1350 Teakwood Ave.
Coos Bay, OR
When: October 3 (9 a.m. to noon)
RSVP: Online
Registration: $35 per person

Florence: Employment Law Update

Where: Driftwood Shores Resort and Conference Center
88416 1st Ave.
Florence, OR
When: October 4 (9 a.m. to noon)
RSVP: Online
Registration: $35 per person

Lincoln City: Employment Law Update

Where: Lincoln City Community Center
Small Meeting Room
2150 NE Oar Place
Lincoln City, OR
When: October 5 (9 a.m. to noon)
RSVP: Online
Registration: $35 per person

Tillamook: Employment Law Update

Where: Tillamook Bay Community College
Rooms 214 and 215
4301 Third St.
Tillamook, OR

When: October 6 (9 a.m. to noon)

RSVP: Online

Registration: $35 per person

Astoria: Employment Law Update

Where: Clatsop Community College
Columbia Hall, Room 219
1651 Lexington Ave.
Astoria, OR

When: October 7 (9 a.m. to noon)

RSVP: Online

Registration: $35 per attendee

"Our agency's Technical Assistance for Employers Program is focused on supporting Oregon businesses and helping them navigate important workplace protections," said Labor Commissioner Brad Avakian. "These seminars will help employers understand the regulatory landscape so that they can avoid potential workplace issues in the first place."

Interested businesses can access the Technical Assistance for Employers seminar registration and schedule online.

Employers can also contact the agency's Technical Assistance for Employers hotline with sick time, minimum wage or other employment questions at (971) 673-0824.

###

For more information about BOLI's efforts to support Oregon employers and protect Oregon's workforce, visit <http://www.oregon.gov/BOLI>.