SYNOPSIS

Complainant, an esthetician, was employed by Respondent Hey Beautiful Enterprises, Ltd. ("HBE"), which paid its employees every week. After three weeks, Complainant had worked 129 hours and earned $1,161 in wages but had been paid nothing. When Complainant told her manager that she had called the Better Business Bureau to ask advice about getting paid, her employment status was reduced from fulltime to on-call. The next day, when Complainant visited BOLI to inquire about filing a wage claim, she was discharged. HBE violated ORS 652.355, OAR 839-010-0100(4), ORS 659A.199, OAR 839-010-0100(4), ORS 659A.030(1)(f), and OAR 839-050-0125(2) in changing Complainant's employment status from fulltime to on-call and discharging Complainant. Respondent Schoene, HBE's president, was responsible for these unlawful employment practice, thereby violating ORS 659A.030(1)(g) by aiding and abetting HBE's actions. The forum awarded Complainant $10,000 in damages for mental and emotional distress stemming from Respondents' unlawful employment practices and $644.00 for lost wages and tips.

The above-entitled case came on regularly for hearing before Alan McCullough, designated as Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") by Brad Avakian, Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries for the State of Oregon. The hearing was held on May 1 19, 2015, in the W. W. Gregg Hearing Room of the Oregon Bureau of Labor and 2 Industries, located at 800 NE Oregon Street, Portland, Oregon.

3 The Bureau of Labor and Industries (“BOLI” or “the Agency”) was represented by 4 Administrative Prosecutor Cristin Casey, an employee of the Agency. Amber R. Walker 5 (“Complainant”) was present throughout the hearing and was not represented by 6 counsel. Respondent Kimberly Schoene (“Schoene”) represented herself and was 7 present throughout the hearing. Respondent HBE was held in default prior to the 8 hearing and was not represented at the hearing.

9 The Agency called the following witnesses: Amber Walker, Complainant, and 10 Monica Mosley, Senior Investigator, BOLI Civil Rights Division. Respondent Schoene 11 called herself as a witness.

12 The forum received into evidence:

- 13 a) Administrative exhibits X1 through X12;
- 14 b) Agency exhibits A1 through A19; and
- 15 c) Respondent exhibits R1 through R6.

16 Having fully considered the entire record in this matter, I, Brad Avakian, 17 Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries, hereby make the following 18 Findings of Fact (Procedural and on the Merits), Ultimate Findings of Fact,<sup>1</sup> Conclusions 19 of Law, Opinion, and Order.

20 FINDINGS OF FACT – PROCEDURAL

21 1) On December 27, 2013, Complainant filed a verified complaint with the 22 Agency’s Civil Rights Division alleging that she was the victim of the unlawful 23 employment practices of Respondent HBE. On April 28, 2014, the complaint was 24

25 <sup>1</sup> The Ultimate Findings of Fact required by ORS 183.470 are subsumed within the Findings of Fact –
The Merits.

1 amended to name Respondent Schoene as an aider and abettor. On August 28, 2014, 2 the complaint was amended a second time to correct Respondents' addresses. After 3 investigation, the Agency issued a Notice of Substantial Evidence Determination on 4 December 12, 2014, in which it found substantial evidence that Respondents had 5 engaged in unlawful employment practices in violation of ORS 652.355, ORS 659A.199, 6 ORS 659A.230, ORS 659A.030(1)(f), and ORS 659A.030(1)(g) by retaliating against 7 Complainant and terminating her for reporting a violation of state law, whistleblowing, 8 filing a wage claim, and aiding and abetting these unlawful employment practices. (Exs.
9 A1, A3, A5, A17)

10 2) On February 13, 2015, the Forum issued a Notice of Hearing to 11 Respondents, the Agency, and Complainant stating the time and place of the hearing as 12 May 19, 2015, beginning at 9:00 a.m., at the W. W. Gregg Hearing Room of the Oregon 13 Bureau of Labor and Industries, located at 800 NE Oregon Street, 10th floor, Portland, 14 Oregon. Together with the Notice of Hearing, the forum sent a copy of the Agency's 15 Formal Charges, a document entitled "Summary of Contested Case Rights and 16 Procedures" containing the information required by ORS 183.413, a document entitled 17 "Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) Notification, a multi-language notice 18 explaining the significance of the Notice of Hearing, and a copy of the forum's contested 19 case hearings rules, OAR 839-050-000 to 839-050-0445. (Ex. X2)

20 3) Summarized the Agency's Formal Charges alleged the following unlawful 21 employment practices:

- 22 a. HBE discriminated against Complainant "because Complainant made a wage 23 claim or discussed, inquired about or consulted an attorney or agency about a 24 wage claim in violation of ORS 652.355 and OAR 839-010-0100(4)." 25 b. HBE "unlawfully discharged, demoted, suspended, discriminated and/or retaliated against Complainant with regard to promotion, compensation or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment because Complainant, in 1 good faith, reported information that Complainant believed was evidence of a 2 violation of a state or federal law, rule or regulation in violation of ORS 659A.199 and OAR 839-010-0100(1)."

3 c. HBE unlawfully discharged, expelled or otherwise discriminated against the 4 Complainant because Complainant opposed Respondents' unlawful practice 5 and/or practices or because Complainant has filed a complaint, testified or 6 assisted in any proceeding under ORS Chapter 659A or has attempted to do 7 so in violation of ORS 659A.030(1)(f) and OAR 839-005-0125."

8 d. Schoene aided, abetted, incited, compelled or coerced or attempted to aid, 9 abet, incite, compel or coerce HBE's unlawful employment practices in 10 violation of ORS 659A.030(1)(g).

11 The Formal Charges asked for lost wages estimated to be "at least $18,720" and 12 damages for emotional, mental and physical suffering in the amount of "at least 13 $10,000." The Formal Charges also requested that Respondents be trained, at their 14 expense, "on the correct interpretation and application of the Oregon laws pertaining to 15 retaliation" and enjoined from "violating laws pertaining to retaliation for engaging in 16 protected activity." (Ex. X2)

17 4) On February 26, 2015, Schoene filed an answer in which she denied 18 engaging in the unlawful employment practices alleged in the Formal Charges. (Ex. X3)

19 5) On March 3, 2015, the ALJ issued an interim order that stated the 20 following:

21 "In reviewing the record to date, it appears that Respondent HEY 22 BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD. is a corporation or legal entity separate and 23 distinct from Respondent KIMBERLY SCHOENE. If so, OAR 839-050-0110(1) 24 requires that corporations must be represented at all stages of the proceeding 25 either by counsel or by an authorized representative. An authorized representative includes an authorized officer or regular employee of a corporation. OAR 8390-050-0110(2). Before a person may appear as an authorized representative, the corporation that is a party to the contested case proceeding must file a letter specifically authorizing the person to appear on behalf of the party. OAR 839-050-0110(3). The answer and request for hearing filed by KIMBERLY SCHOENE does not contain that specific authorization.

1 "If Respondent HEY BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD. is in fact a 2 corporation, it is hereby notified that: (1) HEY BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, 3 LTD. MUST be represented either by an attorney or by an 'authorized 4 representative' at all stages of this proceeding, including the filing of an answer; (2) At this point in the contested case proceeding, HEY BEAUTIFUL
5 ENTERPRISES, LTD. has not yet filed an answer; (3) Except for a letter 6 authorizing a person to appear on behalf of Respondent HEY BEAUTIFUL 7 ENTERPRISES, LTD. as an authorized representative, the forum will disregard 8 any motions, filings, or other communications from Respondent HEY 9 BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD. unless they are through an attorney or authorized representative; and (4) If Respondent HEY BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD. is not represented in this contested case proceeding by an attorney or authorized representative, Respondent HEY BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD. will be found in default and will not be allowed to participate in the hearing. OAR 839-050-0330.

10 "To resolve this potential problem, Respondent HEY BEAUTIFUL 11 ENTERPRISES, LTD. must file a letter specifically authorizing an authorized 12 officer or regular employee of HEY BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD. to appear 13 as its authorized representative. If Ms. Schoene desires to act as HEY 14 BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD.'s authorized representative and is eligible to do so, she can meet this requirement by simply filing a letter authorizing her to appear as HEY BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD.'s authorized representative and asking the forum to accept the answer she has already filed as the answer for HEY BEAUTIFUL ENTERPRISES, LTD."

15 (Ex. X6)

16 6) On March 19, 2015, the Agency filed a motion for default against HBE 17 based on HBE's failure to file a timely answer through an authorized representative.

18 (Ex. X8)

19 7) On March 23, 2015, the ALJ issued an interim order granting the Agency's 20 motion for default against HBE. The order read as follows:

21 "INTRODUCTION

22 "On March 19, 2015, the Agency moved for an Order of Default based on 23 the failure of Respondent Hey Beautiful Enterprises, Ltd. ("HBE") to file an 24 answer to the Formal Charges. This order rules on the Agency's motion.
25

1                   "ANALYSIS

2                   "On February 13, 2015, the Agency issued Formal Charges ("Charges") in 3                   which it alleged that HBE was an active business corporation that was 4                   Complainant's employer and terminated Complainant in violation of ORS 652.355
5                   and OAR 839-010-0100(4). The Charges further alleged that Respondent 6                   Kimberly Schoene was HBE's president and secretary and that Schoene 7                   terminated Complainant, thereby aiding and abetting HBE in violation of ORS 8                   659A.030(1)(g).

9                   "The forum takes official notice that the Notice of Hearing affixed as a 10                  cover page to the Formal Charges conspicuously stated the following two 11                  requirements that are directly relevant to this Notice of Default:

- 12                  (1) 'Respondent's Answer is due 20 days from service of this Notice.
13                  If Respondent does not file an answer within 20 days, it may be 14                  held in DEFAULT. If held in default, Respondent will not be allowed 15                  to participate in the contested case hearing, examine witnesses, or 16                  introduce evidence.' (emphasis in original).
- 17                  (2) 'All partnerships, corporations, unincorporated associations, including 18                  limited liability companies * * * MUST be represented by an attorney or 19                  by an "authorized representative" at all stages of the hearing, including 20                  the filing of an answer. * * *'

21                  "On March 2, 2015, Respondent Schoene filed an answer to the Charges 22                  in which she denied the majority of the allegations in the Charges and asked that 23                  the Charges be dismissed. On March 3, 2015, I issued an interim order setting 24                  out the requirement in OAR 839-050-0110(1) for HBE to be represented by an 25                  attorney or an authorized representative. In pertinent part, my order read:

                  [The order referred to is quoted verbatim in Proposed Finding of Fact #5 – Procedural, supra.]

                  "On March 5, 2015, the Agency filed a Notice of Intent to File a Motion for Default if HBE did not file an answer to the Formal Charges on or before March 16, 2015, then filed the present motion on March 19, 2015. As of today, neither Respondent HBE nor Schoene have complied with the terms of my March 3, 2015, interim order

                  "OAR 839-050-0130(4) requires that 'a party must file an answer within 20 days after service of the [Formal Charges].' OAR 839-050-0030(1) provides that service of Formal Charges is complete 'upon * * * (a) Receipt by the party or the party's representative; or (b) Mailing when sent by registered or certified mail to the correct address of the party or the party's representative.' OAR 839-050-0330(1) provides that default may occur when '[a] party fails to file a required

1 response, including * * * an answer, within the time specified in the [Formal Charges].'

2 "In support of its motion, the Agency attached a receipt showing that the 3 Formal Charges were mailed on February 13, 2015, by certified mail, return 4 receipt requested, to Michael Redden, HBE's registered agent, and delivered and 5 signed for on February 18, 2015. Respondent Schoene raised no argument in 6 her answer that Redden was not HBE's agent or that the Charges were not 7 mailed to Redden's correct address. Accordingly, HBE's answer was due no later than March 5, 2015. 38 days have elapsed since February 13, 2015, and 8 HBE has yet to file an answer, despite two written reminders, one from the forum 9 and one from the Agency, that it would be held in default if it did not do so.

10 "Based on Respondent HBE's failure to file an answer in the time set out 11 in the Notice of Hearing, this forum GRANTS the Agency's motion and finds HBE 12 in default. If HBE is not granted relief from default, HBE will not be allowed to 13 participate in any manner in the hearing, including, but not limited to, 14 presentation of witnesses or evidence on HBE's behalf, examination of Agency 15 witnesses, objection to evidence presented by the Agency, making of motions or 16 argument, and filing exceptions to the Proposed Order. OAR 839-050-0330(4).

17 "Relief from default may be granted if HBE shows good cause, within ten 18 days after the date of this order, for failing to timely file an answer. HBE's request 19 for relief must be in writing and accompanied by a written statement, together 20 with appropriate documentation, setting forth the facts supporting the claim of 21 good cause. OAR 839-050-0340. Any request for relief from default must be 22 made by an attorney or authorized representative or the forum will not consider 23 it."

24 "IT IS SO ORDERED"

25 (Ex. X9)

8) HBE did not file a request for relief from default. (Entire Record)

9) On March 30, 2015, Schoene filed a letter with the forum that stated the following: "HEY BEAUTIFUL ent [sic] authorizes Kimberly Schoene to represent on the business behalf. All documents that have been submitted where [sic] in the behalf of HEY BEAUTIFUL Ent with Kimberly Schoene as the reprehensive [sic]." (Ex. X10)

1           4) Before Complainant started work, HBE required her to sign a document 2 entitled "Contracting Statement agreement for employees of Kalista salon"<sup>2</sup> that 3 included the following language:

4           "The employee Amber acknowledges that he/she will only be compensated for 5 services performed by the employee on an hourly and commission scale of 6 services paid by client[.] If the technician has a client she will be paid for that 7 client within the time she is given to perform the service, unless otherwise agreed 8 in writing. Hourly rate 9 commissions of service 15% commissions of retail 10%"<sup>3</sup>

7 (Ex. A19)

8           5) Complainant was trained by Schoene. Complainant's immediate 9 supervisor was Aida Magana, HBE's spa manager. (Testimony of Complainant, 10 Schoene; Ex. R1)

11           6) On December 20, 2012, Complainant received a written evaluation that 12 concluded with the words "everything is great." While she worked for HBE, her work 13 ethic and her work was "really good." (Testimony of Complainant, Mosley; Exs. A13, 14 A14)

15           7) HBE paid its employees once a week during Complainant's employment.
16 Complainant was not paid after her first week of employment because of HBE's policy 17 that new employees are not paid until "the second payroll." (Testimony of Complainant, 18 Mosley; Ex. A14)

19           8) HBE's regular payday was December 22, 2012. Complainant did not 20 receive a paycheck on that date. At lunchtime, she asked Schoene for her paycheck.
21 Schoene told Complainant there could have been "problems with the payroll" and by the 22 next payroll "it would be taken care of." (Testimony of Complainant)

24 <sup>2</sup> "Kalista Hair Salon" was an assumed business name that HBE registered with the Sec. of State 25 Corporation Division on August 27, 2008.

<sup>3</sup> Underlined text is handwritten on the original document.

1           9)     HBE's next payday was December 27, 2012. By this time, Complainant 2 had worked 129 hours and earned $1,161 in wages.<sup>4</sup> When Complainant did not get a 3 paycheck, she telephoned the Better Business Bureau ("BBB") in the afternoon to ask 4 for assistance in getting paid. A BBB representative told Complainant that she should 5 demand her pay, ask for a pay stub, and contact BOLI if she was not given both.

6 (Testimony of Complainant)

7           10)    In the afternoon after she called the BBB, Complainant called Magana and 8 left a voicemail message saying that she had contacted the BBB and that the BBB had 9 advised her to demand her pay and ask for a pay stub. Complainant also talked to her 10 coworkers about not being paid. Some of them also said that they had not been paid 11 and Complainant advised them to call BOLI. Complainant followed up her voicemail by 12 sending a text message to Magana at 4:54 p.m. Between 4:54 p.m. and 10:15 p.m. that 13 night, Complainant and Magana exchanged the following text messages, reprinted 14 verbatim below. Complainant's messages are bolded; Magana's are in italics.

22           <sup>4</sup> The forum applies the doctrine of issue preclusion to determine this fact. In a Final Order issued on May 23 9, 2014, in which Complainant's subsequent wage claim against HBE was litigated, including the number 24 of hours she worked, her rate of pay, and her total wages earned, BOLI's Commissioner found that 25 Complainant had worked 129 hours and earned $1,161 in wages for the work she performed for HBE between December 6 and December 27, 2012. See In the Matter of Catalogfinder, Inc., 18 BOLI 242, 257 (1999)(issue preclusion bars future litigation on an issue of fact or law when that issue has been actually litigated and determined in a setting when its determination was essential to the final decision reached).

- I'll talk to you about it tomorrow. It's not a click away... and any questions you have are done at it one on one. Not when I'm not at the salon. Any print outs have clients information and I can't just print out.
- It would be awesome if I could talk to tonight. I don't think ur understanding the seriousness of this situation.
- Please come tomorrow so I can give you a copy of your contract and your final check. Thanks.
- Final check?
- I never quit, so am I fired?? What's going on?
- Based on your actions and your involving the whole staff. You quite. I'm so confused!?
- Don't be confused, I just want a copy of my pay like I was advised to do.
- I am not quitting.
- You never had to be there, it is a matter of you building your clientele and getting walk-ins. By not having several ppl waiting for Walk ins we focus on you and having the front desk giving you the walk ins while my other staff is fully licensed. We will be having you on call and you come in when we a client.
- I am just told that I needed to make sure I get a copy of my pay roll information. That is fine, will I see u tomorrow the scheduled time?
- You're on call. If you have a client we'll call you.
- I'm coming in for my copy of contract and my pay roll info what time will be convenient for you?
- Ur going to need to talk to Kim from here on out! Your on call and at this point I'm no longer managing u if u have an address we will send u your copy of the contract and we will have your numbers for you! We will not give u the print out but will let u see your numbers and show you them to compare them! I feel u are hostile and I don't feel comfortable around u any longer! You will have to schedule time with Kim
- Her # please?
- If we need you for clients will contact u! If we call u for a client and u don't show it will be job abandonment! You will need to be in dress store and ready for your client when called. U will not need to stay in the salon after u are done with your client. As a matter of fact it's best your not! U will be written up tomorrow for upsetting the entire staff with your outburst tomorrow! Kim

(Testimony of Complainant; Ex. A11)

11) While Magana and Complainant were exchanging text messages, Magana told Schoene that Complainant had caused a scene with other staff members and that Complainant had contacted the BBB and was demanding a meeting. Schoene and Magana discussed the situation. Schoene told Magana that she thought "we're being

1 set up” and told Magana to stop texting Complainant and arrange a meeting for the next 2 morning. (Testimony of Mosley; Ex. A14)

3 12) From Magana’s text messages, Complainant concluded that her 4 employment status had been changed from fulltime work to on-call status. Complainant 5 wanted to be a fulltime employee, not an on-call employee, and Magana’s text 6 messages made her “initially” feel angry and “emotionally distraught.” (Testimony of 7 Complainant)

8 13) On the morning of December 28, 2012, Complainant met with Schoene 9 and Magana at HBE before HBE opened for business. Complainant’s purpose in 10 meeting with them was to get paid and obtain a copy of documents that showed how 11 she was being paid. The meeting soon became a confrontation, with Schoene 12 screaming at Complainant. Schoene was furious with Complainant for contacting the 13 BBB. Schoene told Complainant she had not done anything wrong, that Complainant 14 was “stupid and naive,” was “being a bitch,” and added “that is how this business 15 works.” Schoene offered to give Complainant a copy of her employment contract and 16 told Complainant that she would be called when a client arrived. Schoene also asked 17 Complainant how long it would take her to get to HBE if she had a client; Complainant 18 responded that it would take an hour. At the end of the meeting, Schoene “pushed” 19 Complainant as Complainant attempted to walk around her to leave HBE’s salon.
20 (Testimony of Complainant, Schoene)

21 14) Complainant then waited downstairs for 30 minutes before Schoene gave 22 her a paycheck for $200 and a handwritten note of days Complainant had worked and 23 the different services Complainant had performed. Schoene did not give Complainant a 24 paystub. In response, Complainant told Schoene that she was going to BOLI because 25

1 Schoene "had not given her what she came in for." (Testimony of Complainant, Mosley;
2 Ex. A14)

3 15) Later on the morning of December 28, Complainant visited BOLI's 4 Portland office, where she was given information on how to file a wage claim and a civil 5 rights complaint. While at BOLI's office, Magana sent Complainant a text message that 6 read: "so we have a brow wax. Can you be here right now?" Complainant responded 7 that she could not because she was "at BOLI." Magana told Schoene that Complainant 8 was "down at the labor board, turning us in." Schoene responded by saying "I guess 9 she quit. I guess she made her decision." Three minutes after her first text message, 10 Magana sent Complainant a second text message that read: "Never mind she left."
11 (Testimony of Complainant, Schoene; Exs. A10, R2)

12 16) Before December 27, Complainant had been scheduled to work on 13 December 28-31, 2012. (Testimony of Complainant; Ex. A11)

14 17) After December 28, HBE did not call Complainant again for work.
15 (Testimony of Complainant)

16 18) On January 5, 2013, Complainant received a letter from HBE that stated 17 HBE was going to bill her for training and sue her. This letter made Complainant feel 18 depressed and angry and certain that she was not going to be paid for her work and 19 that she had been fired. Prior to receiving the letter, Complainant had not been told that 20 she had been fired. (Testimony of Complainant; Exhibit A11)

21 19) Complainant received an average of $20 a day in tips during her 22 employment with HBE. (Testimony of Complainant)

23 20) If Complainant had not been fired, she would have worked an additional 24 seven days between December 28 and January 5, 2013, earning $504 in wages ($9 per 25 hour x 56 hours) and $140 in tips. (Entire record; Calculation of ALJ)

1           21) On January 30, 2013, Complainant filed a wage claim with BOLI alleging 2 that HBE had employed her and failed to pay all wages earned and due to her.
3 (Testimony of Complainant)

4           22) During Complainant's employment, HBE had two fulltime estheticians, 5 including Complainant. The other esthetician was an "on-call" employee. In December 6 2013, HBE shut its doors and closed for business. Up to that time, HBE continued to 7 employ the other esthetician. (Testimony of Schoene)

8           23) Complainant loved working at HBE and would have continued working 9 there, had she been allowed to do so. She particularly liked the decor of HBE's salon 10 and the opportunity to be trained by Schoene, who had been in the cosmetology 11 business a long time and whom Complainant regarded as a mentor. She also liked her 12 co-workers and felt she had "found her permanent home as a stylist." (Testimony of 13 Complainant)

14           24) Complainant felt depressed because HBE never called her back to work.
15 She was evicted from her apartment, her car was repossessed, and had to move in with 16 her mom as a result of being unemployed. She filed for and received minimal 17 unemployment benefits that did not cover her expenses. She had difficulty finding 18 another apartment because of her eviction. As a result of "all this stuff happening," her 19 face was completely broken out. She did not start work at a job equivalent to her job 20 with HBE until on or about her birthday on November 24, 2013, when she started work 21 as a hairdresser at Supercuts. (Testimony of Complainant)

22           25) On March 25, 2014, a contested case hearing was held regarding 23 Complainant's wage claim and the wage claims of three other persons who had been 24 employed by HBE. On May 9, 2014, BOLI's Commissioner issued a Final Order that 25 concluded, among other things, that Complainant was owed $800.15 in unpaid, due,

1 and owing wages for the work she performed for HBE between December 6 and 2 December 27, 2012. In the same Final Order, BOLI's Commissioner concluded that 3 three of Complainant's coworkers were owed unpaid wages, including one coworker 4 who was paid nothing at all for 53 hours of work. The Commissioner also held that 5 HBE's practice of requiring HBE's employees to sign employment contracts in which 6 they agreed not to be paid for "non-client" work was invalid as a matter of law.<sup>5</sup> (Ex.
7 A19; Judicial Notice)

8 26) Mosley was a credible witness and the forum has credited her testimony in 9 its entirety. (Testimony of Mosley)

10 27) Although Complainant's memory was not completely reliable and had to 11 be refreshed on two important points -- the date she began work for HBE and her rate of 12 pay, which she initially testified was $10 per hour before the Agency's administrative 13 prosecutor referred her to the Final Order deciding her wage claim -- her testimony was 14 consistent with her prior statements and the documents offered in evidence and the 15 forum finds that she was a credible witness. In particular, the forum has credited 16 Complainant's testimony whenever it conflicted with Schoene's testimony. (Testimony 17 of Complainant)

18 28) Schoene's testimony was disingenuous and self-serving. She blamed her 19 ultimate business failure in December 2013 on Complainant's rousing her staff to quit 20 because of Complainant's demand for her pay, records of her hours worked, and 21 itemized deductions. A prime example of this was her testimony that she did not do 22 HBE's payroll because "I didn't want anyone to think I would cheat them." In contrast, 23 the Final Order issued on May 9, 2014, based on the wage claims of Complainant and

1 three of her coworkers, concluded that that is exactly what Schoene was doing through 2 HBE's payroll scheme. The forum has only credited Schoene's testimony when it was 3 adverse to herself or HBE. (Testimony of Schoene)

4 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

5 1) At all times material herein, HBE was a corporation doing business in 6 Oregon and engaged or utilized the personal services of one or more employees, 7 including Complainant.

8 2) At all times material, Respondent Schoene was HBE's corporate president 9 and HBE's manager.

10 3) At all times material, Aida Magana was Complainant's immediate 11 supervisor.

12 4) The actions, statements, and motivations of Schoene and Magana are 13 properly imputed to HBE.

14 5) HBE's action, taken through Schoene, of changing Complainant's 15 employment status from fulltime to on-call, violated ORS 652.355, OAR 839-010-16 0100(4), ORS 659A.199, and OAR 839-010-0100(4).

17 6) HBE's action, taken through Schoene, of discharging Complainant from 18 HBE's employment, violated ORS 652.355, OAR 839-010-0100(4), ORS 659A.199, 19 OAR 839-010-0100(4), ORS 659A.030(1)(f), and OAR 839-050-0125(2).

20 7) Schoene aided and abetted HBE's change of Complainant's employment 21 status from fulltime to on-call and discharge of Complainant, thereby violating ORS 22 659A.030(1)(g).

23 8) BOLI's Commissioner has jurisdiction over the subject matter and 24 Respondents herein. ORS 652.330, 652.332.

1 did not get a paycheck on December 27, 2012, HBE's next payday, she called the BBB 2 for advice and was told she should demand her pay, ask for a pay stub, and contact 3 BOLI if she was not given both. Complainant then called Magana and left a voice mail 4 message stating that she had contacted the BBB and repeating the advice given to her 5 by the BBB. She also talked to her coworkers and learned that some of them had not 6 been paid. Over the next five hours, she exchanged a series of text messages with 7 Magana that concluded when Magana told Complainant that she was now an "on call" 8 employee who would only be called for work when she had a client, and that Schoene 9 was now her immediate supervisor. During this text message exchange, Magana told 10 Schoene that Complainant had contacted the BBB and was demanding her wages.

11 The next morning, Complainant met with Magana and Schoene. Schoene was 12 furious at Complainant for contacting the BBB and screamed at Complainant, telling her 13 that she had done nothing wrong and that Complainant was "stupid and naive." She 14 also told Complainant that she was "being a bitch" and "that is how this business 15 works." At the end of the meeting, Schoene told Complainant that HBE would call her 16 when a client arrived. Schoene also gave Complainant a $200 paycheck, a small 17 portion of the wages earned, due, and owing to Complainant. Complainant left, telling 18 Schoene that she was going to BOLI because Schoene "had not given her what she 19 came in for."

20 Later that morning, Complainant visited BOLI's Portland office and was given 21 information on how to file a wage claim and a civil rights complaint. While at BOLI's 22 office, Magana sent Complainant a text message that read: "so we have a brow wax.
23 Can you be here right now?" Complainant texted back that she could not because she 24 was "at BOLI." Magana told Schoene that Complainant was "down at the labor board, 25

1 turning us in." Schoene's response was "I guess she quit. I guess she made her 2 decision." Complainant was never again called for work.

3 ORS 652.355 & OAR 839-010-0100(4)

4 ORS 652.355 provides, in pertinent part:

5 "(1) An employer may not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against 6 an employee because:

7 "(a) The employee has made a wage claim or discussed, inquired about or 8 consulted an attorney or agency about a wage claim.

9 *** **

10 "(2) A violation of this section is an unlawful employment practice under ORS 11 chapter 659A. A person unlawfully discriminated against under this section may 12 file a complaint under ORS 659A.820 with the Commissioner of the Bureau of 13 Labor and Industries."

14 OAR 839-010-0100(4) interprets this statute as follows:

15 "(4) ORS 652.355 prohibits any employer with one or more employees in Oregon 16 from discriminating or retaliating against a current, former, or any other 17 employer's employee because:

18 "(a) The employee has made a wage claim or has discussed with anyone, 19 inquired of anyone, or consulted an attorney or agency about a wage claim[.]"

20 In the context of this statute, the words "wage claim" means either (1) having made a 21 formal wage claim with BOLI or (2) having discussed or inquired about unpaid wages 22 with anyone or consulted an attorney or agency about unpaid wages. Complainant's 23 call to the BBB and her discussions with her coworkers on December 27 about not 24 being paid the wages due and owing to her both satisfy the latter definition.

25 It is undisputed that Complainant was a fulltime employee with a regular work schedule until she called the BBB and talked to employer coworkers about her pay on December 27, 2012. Complainant's testimony and Mosley's interview notes with 1 Schoene show that Magana and Schoene were both aware that Complainant had 2 contacted the BBB before they decided to make Complainant an on-call employee. The 3 following portions of the December 27, 2012, text message exchange between 4 Complainant and Magana, reprinted verbatim, together with Magana and Schoene's 5 knowledge that Complainant had complained to the BBB<sup>6</sup> and complained to her 6 coworkers about her pay, proves that Complainant was made an on-call employee 7 because of those complaints:

8 Complainant: "I never quit, so am I fired?? What's going on?"

9 Magana: "Based on your actions and your involving the whole staff. You quite."

10 Complainant: "Don't be confused, I just want a copy of my pay like I was advised 11 to do. I am not quitting."

12 Magana: "You never had to be there, it is a matter of you building your clientele 13 and getting walk-ins. By not having several ppl waiting for Walk ins we focus on 14 you and having the front desk giving you the walk ins while my other staff is fully licensed. We will be having you on call and you come in when we a client."

15 Complainant: "I am just told that I needed to make sure I get a copy of my pay roll information. That is fine, will I see u tomorrow the scheduled time?"

16 Magana: "You're on call. If you have a client we'll call you."

17 Based on the foregoing, the forum concludes that Complainant's job status was 18 changed from fulltime to on-call in violation of ORS 652.355 and OAR 839-010-0100(4).

19 Regarding Complainant's alleged discharge, Respondents argue that 20 Complainant voluntarily quit by declining to come to HBE's salon on December 28, 21 2012, to perform a brow wax on a client. Earlier that morning, Complainant had told 22 Schoene, in response to Schoene's question, that it would take her an hour to get to 23 HBE if called in for work. Complainant was at BOLI's Portland office getting information 24

25 <sup>6</sup> See Finding of Fact #10 – The Merits, for context.

1 about filing a wage claim when Magana texted her to come to HBE to do a brow wax.
2 Complainant told Magana she was at BOLI, and Magana told Schoene that 3 Complainant was "down at the labor board, turning us in." Schoene responded by 4 saying "I guess she quit. I guess she made her decision." In contrast, Complainant 5 credibly testified that she never quit, and in fact wanted to continue working for HBE, 6 even though her hours had been cut.

7 Based mainly on Schoene's testimony, the forum finds that Schoene's excuse for 8 deciding Complainant had quit was pretextual, and the real reason Complainant was 9 never called again for work was in retaliation for her complaints about not being paid.
10 To begin, Schoene was not a credible witness. As alluded to earlier, she testified "I 11 didn't take care of payroll specifically because I didn't want anybody to think that I would 12 ever cheat them. I had a payroll person, a bookkeeper, and ADP wrote the checks. * * 13 * So they just told me how much to transfer into the * * * payroll checking account."
14 Notably, she did not testify about how she kept track of the hours worked by HBE's 15 employees, how ADP determined the amount of the checks, and why Complainant was 16 not paid anything on her first three scheduled paydays. Second, Schoene's testimony 17 that she "was shocked at [Complainant's] behavior," made in reference to 18 Complainant's complaints about her wages, vividly demonstrates her attitude to 19 Complainant's complaints about her wages. Third, Schoene's reference to "when the 20 whole Amber thing happened" and her testimony that the paperwork from the wage 21 claims caused a "constant infection" in her shop is a further indicator of Schoene's 22 attitude towards Complainant's demand for wage accountability. Fourth, Schoene's 23 testimony that had Complainant not "abandoned" her job "I would have let her work 24 because I would have tried to get her to drop the case" confirms her opposition to 25 Complainant's wage claim. Based on the above, the forum concludes that HBE, acting

1 through Schoene, discharged Complainant in violation of ORS 652.355 and OAR 839-2 010-0100(4).

3 ORS 659A.199 & OAR 839-010-0100(4)

4 ORS 659A.199 provides:

5 (1) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discharge, demote, 6 suspend or in any manner discriminate or retaliate against an employee with 7 regard to promotion, compensation or other terms, conditions or privileges of 8 employment for the reason that the employee has in good faith reported information that the employee believes is evidence of a violation of a state or federal law, rule or regulation.

9 OAR 839-010-0100(1) interprets this statute as follows:

10 (1) ORS 659A.199 prohibits any employer with one or more employees in 11 Oregon from discharging, demoting, suspending, or in any manner discriminating 12 or retaliating against an employee with regard to promotion, compensation or 13 other terms, conditions or privileges of employment for the reason that the employee has in good faith reported information to anyone that the employee believes is evidence of a violation of any state or federal law, rule or regulation.

14 The "good faith" requirement in ORS 659A.199 is met when the whistleblower 15 has a reasonable belief that the information reported has occurred and that the 16 information, if proven, constitutes evidence of a violation of a state or federal law, rule or 17 regulation. Cf. In the Matter of Logan International Ltd., 26 BOLI 254, 279-80 (2005); In 18 the Matter of Cleopatra's, Inc., 26 BOLI 125, 134 (2005); In the Matter of Hermiston 19 Assisted Living, 23 BOLI 96, 124-25 (2002) (all three cases defining "good faith" in the 20 context of Oregon's laws prohibiting retaliation against whistleblowers of criminal 21 activity). Here, the information reported by Complainant consisted of her complaints 22 that she had not been paid for her work. At the time of her complaint, Complainant had 23 worked through three of HBE's weekly payday cycles, was told by the BBB that she was 24 legally entitled to a paycheck and paystub for her work, and the forum itself has 25 previously concluded that HBE violated Oregon state law by failing to pay Complainant

1 her earned, due, and owing wages.<sup>7</sup> This satisfies the “good faith” requirement in ORS 2 659A.199.

3 Under ORS 659A.199, an employee “report[s]” information when the employee 4 communicates information to “anyone” that the employee believes is evidence of a 5 violation of state law. Cf. In the Matter of Logan International Ltd., 26 BOLI 254, 279-80 6 (2005) (when complainant told his supervisors that employees in respondent’s shipping 7 department were using drugs, this constituted an oral “report” that satisfied the reporting 8 element of the agency’s prima facie case); In the Matter of Cleopatra’s, Inc., 26 BOLI 9 125, 134 (2005) (complainant’s oral communication to respondent’s manager that her 10 payroll deductions constituted theft satisfied the reporting element of the agency’s prima 11 facie case). Complainant’s complaints to the BBB, Magana, Schoene, and BOLI that 12 she was not being paid for her work all satisfy the reporting requirement of ORS 13 659A.199.

14 In the earlier section of this Opinion discussing Complainant’s ORS 652.355 15 allegations, the forum concluded that Complainant was made an on-call employee 16 because she complained to the BBB and to her coworkers about her pay, and that she 17 was fired because she went to BOLI to make a wage claim. Those complaints were 18 good faith reports containing evidence of a violation of state law. As such, HBE’s 19 reduction of Complainant’s hours and discharge of Complainant also violated ORS 20 659A.199 and OAR 839-010-0100(1).

21 ORS 659A.030(1)(f) & OAR 839-005-0125(2)

22 The Agency excepted to the ALJ’s conclusion in the Proposed Order that HBE 23 did not violate ORS 659A.030(1)(f) and OAR 839-005-0125(2). The forum GRANTS 24

1 the Agency's exception. The forum has already concluded that HBE's ORS 652.355
2 violation establishes an unlawful practice under ORS chapter 659A. The analysis used 3 in determining that HBE violated ORS 659A.199 applies equally to the Agency's ORS 4 659A.030(1)(f) claim. Accordingly, the forum's conclusion that HBE violated ORS 5 659A.199 necessarily leads to the conclusion that HBE also violated ORS 659.030(1)(f).

6 Respondent Schoene Aided and Abetted HBE's Violations

7 ORS 659A.030(1)(g) provides:

8 "(1) It is an unlawful employment practice:

9 "(g) For any person, whether an employer or an employee, to aid, abet, incite, 10 compel or coerce the doing of any of the acts forbidden under this chapter or to 11 attempt to do so."

12 In this case, HBE was<sup>8</sup> an Oregon corporation and Schoene was HBE's president and 13 secretary. A corporate officer and owner who commits acts rendering the corporation 14 liable for an unlawful employment practice may be found to have aided and abetted the 15 corporation's unlawful employment practice. In the Matter of Crystal Springs 16 Landscapes, Inc., 32 BOLI 144, 166-67 (2012). See also In the Matter of Dr. Andrew
17 Engel, DMD, PC, 32 BOLI 94, 137 (2012); In the Matter of Cyber Center, Inc., 32 BOLI 18 11, 35 (2012). Aiding and abetting, in the context of an unlawful employment practice, 19 means "to help, assist, or facilitate the commission of an unlawful employment practice, 20 promote the accomplishment thereof, help in advancing or bring it about, or encourage, 21 counsel or incite as to its commission." Id. Accordingly, the forum examines Schoene's 22 role in HBE's alteration of Complainant's work schedule from fulltime to on-call and 23 Complainant's discharge to determine the extent, if any, of Schoene's liability as an 24 aider and abettor.

25 <sup>8</sup> The forum uses the past tense because HBE was an inactive corporation at the time of the hearing.

1 Fulltime to On-Call

2 Complainant's work schedule was changed to on-call on December 27, 2012, 3 during her exchange of text messages with Magana, her immediate supervisor, 4 concerning her unpaid wages. Although Complainant did not speak directly with 5 Schoene about her complaints on December 27 and there is no direct evidence that 6 Schoene made the decision on December 27 to change Complainant's employment 7 status to on-call, the following circumstantial evidence provides ample grounds for the 8 forum to conclude that Schoene made that decision. First, there is no evidence that 9 Magana had the unilateral authority to change Complainant's employment status, 10 whereas Schoene, as HBE's president and manager, clearly had the ultimate authority 11 to make employment decisions. Second, Magana discussed Complainant's complaints 12 with Schoene before Magana texted Complainant with the message that her job status 13 was changed to on-call. Third, Schoene's attitude towards Complainant's complaints 14 about her wages was decidedly hostile. Based on the above, the forum finds that 15 Schoene aided and abetted HBE by making the decision to change Complainant's 16 status to on-call, thereby violating ORS 659A.030(1)(g).<sup>9</sup>

17 Complainant's Termination

18 In her Answer and at hearing, Schoene argued that Complainant voluntarily quit 19 by declining to come to HBE's salon on December 28, 2012, to perform a brow wax on 20 a client. When Magana told Schoene that Complainant was "down at the labor board, 24 supervisor and the primary actor in three distinct unlawful employment actions against complainant was Center, Inc.*, 32 BOLI 11, 35 (2012)(an individual respondent who was the vice president, one third share owner, and CEO of the respondent corporation that employed complainant throughout complainant's employment was found to have aided and abetted the respondent corporation in discharging complainant when he participated in making the joint decision to discharge complainant).

1 turning us in," Schoene concluded "I guess she quit. I guess she made her decision."
2 Through Complainant's credible testimony, the Agency proved that she had no intention 3 of quitting and wanted to continue working for HBE, even though her hours had been 4 cut. The forum views Schoene's conclusion on December 28 that Complainant had 5 "quit" because Complainant could not come in to do a brow wax, made shortly after 6 Complainant had told Schoene it would take her an hour to get to HBE to see a client 7 and at the very time Complainant told Magana she was at BOLI's office, as 8 transparently pretextual. In fact, Schoene's conclusion that Complainant had "quit" was 9 Schoene's conclusion to discharge Complainant from HBE's employment. This 10 decision makes Schoene liable as an aider and abettor to Complainant's discharge.<sup>10</sup>

11 Conclusion

12 As an aider and abettor, Schoene is jointly and severally liable with HBE for all of 13 HBE's unlawful employment practices.

14 Damages

15 A. Back Pay

16 The Agency excepted to the Proposed Order's conclusion that Complainant was 17 not entitled to any back pay. The forum addresses the Agency's exception at the end of 18 this section and grants it in part.

19 The Agency's Formal Charges asked that Complainant be awarded "an amount 20 to be proven at hearing and estimate to be at least $18,720.00." At hearing, the Agency 21 specifically requested that Complainant be awarded back pay from the date of her 22 termination until she obtained equivalent employment, on or around Thanksgiving 2013.

3 have received but for the respondent's unlawful employment practices. In the Matter of 4 Oak Harbor Freight Lines, Inc., 2014 BOLI Orders 1, 37 (2014). Back pay awards are 5 calculated to make a complainant whole for injuries suffered as a result of 6 discrimination. In the Matter of Maltby Biocontrol, Inc., 33 BOLI Orders 121, 157-58 7 (2014). A complainant who seeks back pay is required to mitigate damages by using 8 reasonable diligence in finding other suitable employment. Maltby at 157. Typically, the 9 Agency proves that a complainant exercised reasonable diligence through 10 complainant's testimony, often coupled with documentation, about jobs for which the 11 complainant applied or inquired about.<sup>11</sup> At a minimum, there must be some credible 12 evidence that the complainant actively sought work.<sup>12</sup>

13           This is an unusual case, in that Complainant's testimony about her job search 14 after being discharged by HBE on December 28 was sparse to an extreme, consisting 15 of her statement that she found an equivalent job at Supercuts that started on or about 16 November 24, 2013. Relative to that job, she testified that it took her until the Supercuts 17 job to find employment because she did not want to work at a "chain salon," adding:

18           "I'm sure interviews did not go well, being stressed out and all of the stuff that 19 was happening. My face was completely broken out * * * from all this stuff 20

21 <sup>11</sup> See, e.g., In the Matter of Crystal Springs Landscapes, Inc., 32 BOLI 144, 169 (2012)(through 22 complainant's credible testimony and documentation of her job search, the agency established that she 23 diligently sought other suitable employment after her discharge, eventually finding another job that started on November 1, 2010).

24 <sup>12</sup> See, e.g., In the Matter of Cyber Center, Inc., 32 BOLI 11, 37 (2012)(when complainant testified that 25 she actively sought work but her testimony "was not overly specific as to specific jobs that she applied for," her testimony that she actively sought work was unimpeached, and respondents offered no evidence of any other job openings for which complainant was qualified and did not apply, the forum rejected respondent's argument that complainant did not mitigate her damages).

1           happening. You know, when you're going in looking for job where you're an 2           esthetician * * * people look at your skin. So I have a feeling that hindered me."

3           On cross examination, she also testified that she could not have found a job at 4           Supercuts right after her employment with HBE ended because "[e]motionally, I 5           couldn't. I was pretty much focused on finding a place to live and had to take care of 6           that first."

7           In its exceptions, the Agency argues that Complainant's testimony quoted above 8           constituted credible testimony that Complainant went on "at least two or more interviews 9           for employment." The forum disagrees and declines to infer from this testimony that 10          Complainant actively sought work or had any actual job interviews. There is no 11          evidence in the record as to any memory issues or other problems on Complainant's 12          part that prevented her from giving any specific testimony as to her job search, and the 13          facts lend equal credence to an inference that Complainant did not actively seek work.
14          Finally, her testimony that she started work at another job 11 months later, absent any 15          specific testimony about her intervening job search, does not demonstrate reasonable 16          diligence in finding other suitable employment.<sup>13</sup>

17          In its exceptions, the Agency also argues that OAR 839-003-0090(3) gives the 18          forum the discretion to award damages for back wages "even if there was no evidence 19          that Complainant sought employment." That rule provides: "In order to recover 20          damages for lost wages, the aggrieved person will generally be required to mitigate

21          <sup>13</sup> See, e.g., In the Matter of Loyal Order of Moose, 13 BOLI 1, 8, 13 (1994)(when complainant was constructively 22          discharged and did not actively seek work until a month later, and nine weeks later removed herself from the job 23          market when she began work as a volunteer caregiver, the commissioner awarded back pay for the nine week period
24          that complainant actively sought work); In the Matter of Casa Toltec, 8 BOLI 149, 174 (1989)( commissioner did not 25          award back pay in an AIDS disability case when the evidence showed that complainant applied for only one job between her termination date of May 19, 1987, and October 27, 1987, when she was no longer employable because of her disease); In the Matter of Lee's Cafe, 8 BOLI 1, 20-21 (1989)(a complainant who did not seek alternative employment for two months after she was discharged from respondents' café was not entitled to back pay for that period because she voluntarily excluded herself from the job market, thus failing to mitigate her damages).

1 damages by seeking employment.” The Agency argues that the inclusion of the word 2 “generally” gives the forum the unfettered discretion to award back pay, regardless of 3 whether a discharged complainant seeks work. The forum has never adopted this 4 absolute position in evaluating a back pay claim and declines to do so now.

5 Alternately, the Agency asks that Complainant be awarded back pay and tips for 6 seven days of work between December 27 and January 5, 2013, based on the fact that 7 Complainant did not know she had been fired until January 5, 2013, and therefore had 8 no obligation to look for replacement work during that time period. This circumstance 9 was not considered in the Proposed Order. The forum agrees with the Agency that 10 Complainant had no obligation to look for work when she was unaware that she had 11 been fired and grants the Agency’s alternate request. Complainant is entitled to back 12 pay and tips for the 56 hours she would have worked in this time period. Computed at 13 $9 per hour and $20 a day in tips, the forum awards Complainant $504 in back pay and 14 $140 in lost tips.

15 Mental and Emotional Distress Damages

16 This forum has long held that in determining an award for emotional and mental 17 suffering, the forum considers the type of discriminatory conduct, and the duration, 18 frequency, and severity of the conduct. It also considers the type and duration of the 19 mental distress and the vulnerability of the complainant. The actual award amount 20 depends on the facts presented by each complainant. A complainant’s testimony, if 21 believed, is sufficient to support a claim for mental suffering damages. See, e.g., Maltby 22 Biocontrol at 159.

23 In this case, Complainant testified that she loved working at HBE and would have 24 continued working there, had she been allowed to do so. She particularly liked the 25 decor of HBE’s salon and the opportunity to be trained by Schoene, whom Complainant

1 regarded as a mentor. She felt angry and "emotionally distraught" on December 27 2 after her employment status was changed to on-call. Later, she felt depressed because 3 she was never called back to work. She was evicted from her apartment, had to move 4 in with her mom as a result of being unemployed, and had difficulty finding another 5 apartment because of her eviction. Her car was repossessed. She filed for and 6 received minimal unemployment benefits that did not cover her expenses, and she did 7 not start work at a job equivalent to her job with HBE until almost a year later.

8 Based on the above, the forum concludes that $10,000, the amount sought by 9 the Agency to compensate Complainant for her mental and emotional distress, is an 10 appropriate award.
