

Disclosure Statement & Work Agreement

Labor contractors must provide a written statement disclosing the terms and conditions of employment to workers at the time they are hired, recruited, or solicited or at the time they are supplied to another by that contractor, whichever occurs first. Additionally, labor contractors must execute a written agreement with each of their workers prior to the start of work. A copy of the agreement must be furnished to each worker prior to starting work.

This form, together with WH-151 summarizing certain rights of workers, may be used to disclose terms of employment for recruitment purposes and, when signed by both the contractor and the worker, may also be used as a written agreement regarding the terms of employment.
