

EXHIBIT J

(Oregon Administrative Rule 255-070-0001)

GENERAL AND SPECIAL SUPERVISION CONDITIONS

Parole and Post-Prison Supervision is subject to all listed “General Conditions” and any designated “Special Conditions”. Prior to release, the Board may modify the conditions at any time. After Parole or Post-Prison Supervision has commenced, conditions may be added, pursuant to OAR 255-070-0015 up to 60 days from release onto Parole or Post-Prison Supervision, or upon your signed consent, or after you have an opportunity to be heard. Your opportunity to be heard may be oral or in writing.

Parole or Post-Prison Supervision may be revoked for violation of any of these conditions and you may be returned to custody when parole or post-prison supervision is not in your best interest or the best interest of society.

The Board may, at its discretion, sanction violations of Parole or Post-Prison Supervision Conditions. Sanctions may include returning you to the custody of the Department of Corrections.

The following definitions apply to this Exhibit:

1. "Supervised Person" or "Offender" means person released to parole or post-prison supervision.
2. "Parole and Probation Officer," "Supervising Officer" and "PO" mean the supervising officer under the Parole or Post-Prison Supervision systems.
3. "Weapon" means any item, instrument, material, or substance designed to be used, or which under the circumstances in which the item, instrument, material, or substance is intended to be used, to cause, or threaten to cause, bodily harm or physical damage, or to create a reasonable apprehension in another of bodily harm or physical damage. This includes both real weapons and items made to look like weapons, including but not limited to, guns (including BB guns, pellet guns, and air soft guns), replica guns, replica blades, and other items altered to look like real guns or other weapons.

Other definitions apply as defined in Oregon Administrative Rule 255-005.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

GC-a. Pay fines, restitution, or other fees ordered by the court or the Board.

GC-b. Submit to testing for controlled substance, cannabis, or alcohol use if the supervised person has a history of substance abuse or if there is a reasonable suspicion that the supervised person has illegally used controlled substances.

GC-c. Participate in a substance abuse evaluation as directed by the supervising officer and follow the recommendations of the evaluator if there are reasonable grounds to believe there is a history of substance abuse.

GC-d. Remain in the State of Oregon until written permission to leave is granted by the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency. Extradition is waived if the person under supervision absconds from supervision and leaves the state.

GC-e. Not change residence without prior permission from the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency and inform the parole and probation officer of any change in employment.

GC-f. Permit the parole and probation officer to visit the supervised person or the person's work site or residence and to conduct a walk-through of the common areas and of the rooms in the residence occupied by or under the control of the supervised person.

GC-g. Consent to the search of person, vehicle, or premises upon the request of a representative of the supervising officer if the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to believe that evidence of a violation will be found, and submit to fingerprinting or photographing, or both, when requested by the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency for supervision purposes.

GC-h. Obey all laws, municipal, county, state and federal, and in circumstances in which state and federal law conflict, obey state law.

GC-i. Promptly and truthfully answer all reasonable inquiries by the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency.

GC-j. Not possess weapons, firearms, or dangerous animals.

GC-k. Report as directed.

GC-l. If recommended by the supervising officer, successfully complete a sex offender treatment program approved by the supervising officer and submit to polygraph examinations at the direction of the supervising officer if the Supervised Person: (A) is under supervision for a sex offense as defined in ORS 163A.005; (B) was previously convicted of a sex offense as defined in ORS 163A.005; or (C) was previously convicted in another jurisdiction of an offense that would constitute a sex offense as defined in ORS 163A.005 if committed in this state.

GC-m. Participate in a mental health evaluation as directed by the supervising officer and follow the recommendation of the evaluator.

GC-n. If required to report as a sex offender under ORS 163A.010, report, in person, to the Department of State Police, a city police department or a county sheriff's office, in the county to which the person was discharged, paroled, released or in which the person was otherwise placed:

(A) Within 10 days following discharge, release on parole, post-prison supervision or other supervised or conditional release;

(B) Within 10 days of a change of residence;

(C) Within 10 days of a legal change of name;

(D) Once each year within 10 days of the person's birth date, regardless of whether the person changed residence;

(E) Within 10 days of the first day the person works at, carries on a vocation at or attends an institution of higher education;

(F) Within 10 days of a change in work, vocation, or attendance status at an institution of higher education; and

(G) At least 21 days prior to any intended travel outside of the United States.

GC-o. Submit to a risk and needs assessment as directed by the supervising officer and follow reasonable recommendations resulting from the assessment.

GC-p. Be under the supervision of the Department of Corrections and its representatives or other supervisory authority and abide by their direction and counsel.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

SC-1. Be evaluated by a mental health evaluator and follow all treatment recommendations.

SC-2. Continue to take any psychiatric or psychotropic medication that was prescribed prior to or at the time of release from custody until otherwise directed by a physician. At the direction of the supervising officer, the supervised person shall undergo a psychiatric evaluation and take any medications recommended. The supervised person shall comply with a medication monitoring program at the request of the supervising officer.

SC-3. Without prior written approval of the supervising officer, a prohibition against contacting a person under 18 years of age.

SC-4. Without prior written approval of the supervising officer, a prohibition against being present at or on property adjacent to, a school, childcare center, playground or other place intended for use primarily by persons under 18 years of age, and from being present more than one time at a place where persons under 18 years of age regularly congregate.

SC-5. Submit to random polygraph tests to obtain information for risk management and treatment. The supervised person is responsible for paying the expenses of the examinations. The results of a polygraph examination under this subparagraph may not be used in evidence in a hearing to prove a violation of post-prison supervision. Failure to submit to the tests may result in return to custody.

SC-6. Enter and complete or be successfully discharged from a recognized and approved sex offender treatment program at the direction of the supervising officer, which may include polygraph and plethysmograph testing. The supervised person shall abide by all rules and conditions of the sex offender treatment program. The supervised person is responsible for paying for the treatment program. The supervised person shall abide by a prohibition against viewing, listening to, owning or possessing sexually stimulating visual or auditory materials that are relevant to the person's deviant behavior unless otherwise allowed by the PO in writing.

SC-7. Pay court ordered restitution to the clerk of the court of the county of sentencing (ORS 137.103-106, OAR 255-065-0005).

SC8. If required to report as a sex offender under ORS 163A, report to Oregon State Police, a chief of police, a county sheriff, or the supervising agency when supervision begins, within 10 days of a change in residence and once a year within 10 days of the offender's date of birth.

SC-9. Without prior written approval of the supervising officer, shall not possess or use intoxicating substances, including but not limited to alcohol, inhalants, or controlled substances (except pursuant to a medical prescription).

SC-10. Other: Special conditions may be imposed that are not listed above when the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision determines that such conditions are necessary.

SC-11 Long version:

SC11: No contact, or attempted contact, with victims, _____, including direct, indirect, second- or third-party contact or knowingly being within 1,000 feet of a victim's residence, employment, school, daycare, or motor vehicle without prior written consent of the supervising officer.

SC-11 Short version:

SC11: Shall have no contact, or attempted contact, direct or indirect with those listed below:

SC-12. Consent to search of computer or other electronic equipment upon the request of the supervising officer or their representative, if the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to believe that evidence of a violation will be found.

Sex Offender Package:

A. Agreement to comply with a curfew set by the Board, the supervisory authority, or the supervising officer.

B. A prohibition against contacting a person under 18 years of age without the prior written approval of the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

C. A prohibition against being present more than one time, without the prior written approval of the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer, at a place where persons under 18 years of age regularly congregate.

D. In addition to the prohibition under subparagraph (C) of this paragraph, a prohibition against being present, without the prior written approval of the Board or supervising officer, at, or on property adjacent to, a school, childcare center, playground, or other place intended for use primarily by persons under 18 years of age.

E. A prohibition against working or volunteering at a school, day care center, park, playground, or other place where persons under 18 years of age regularly congregate.

F. Entry into and completion of or successful discharge from a sex offender treatment program approved by the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer. The supervised person shall abide by all rules and conditions of the sex offender treatment program. The program may include polygraph and plethysmograph testing. The person is responsible for paying for the treatment program.

G. A prohibition against direct or indirect contact with the victim, unless approved by the victim, the person's treatment provider and the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

H. Unless otherwise indicated for the treatment required under subparagraph (F) of this paragraph, a prohibition against viewing, listening to, owning, or possessing sexually stimulating visual or auditory materials that are relevant to the person's deviant behavior.

I. Agreement to consent to a search of the person or the vehicle or residence of the person upon the request of a representative of the Board or supervisory authority if the representative has reasonable grounds to believe that evidence of a violation of a condition of post-prison supervision will be found.

J. Participation in random polygraph examinations to obtain information for risk management and treatment. The person is responsible for paying the expenses of the examinations. The results of a polygraph examination under this subparagraph may not be used in evidence in a hearing to prove a violation of post-prison supervision.

K. Maintenance of a driving log and a prohibition against driving a motor vehicle alone unless approved by the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

L. A prohibition against using a post-office box unless approved by the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

M. A prohibition against residing in a dwelling in which another sex offender who is on probation, parole or post-prison supervision resides unless approved by the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer, or in which more than one other sex offender who is on probation, parole or post- prison supervision resides unless approved by the Board or the director of the supervisory authority, or a designee of the Board or director. As soon as practicable, the supervising officer of a person subject to the requirements of this subparagraph shall review the person's living arrangement with the persons' sex offender treatment provider to ensure that the arrangement supports the goals of offender rehabilitation and community safety.
