2025-2027 STATE OF OREGON and SEIU Central Table Union Counter Proposal 05/21/2025

ARTICLE 20-INVESTIGATIONS, DISCIPLINE, AND DISCHARGE

- 2 Section 1. The principles of progressive discipline shall be used when appropriate. Discipline
- 3 shall include, but not be limited to: written reprimands; reduction in pay;* demotion; suspension
- 4 without pay*; and dismissal. Discipline shall be imposed only for just cause.
- *For FLSA-exempt employees, except for penalties imposed for infractions of safety rules of
- 6 major significance, no reduction in pay and only suspensions without pay in one (1) or more full
- 7 workweek increments unless or until FLSA restrictions on economic sanctions for exempt
- 8 employees are eliminated by statute or a court decision the State determines dispositive. Safety
- 9 rules of major significance include only those relating to the prevention of serious danger to the
- 10 Agency, or other employee.

- 11 Section 2. The Employer is committed to conducting investigations in a timely manner. Agencies
- will make reasonable efforts to begin the investigatory process on potential disciplinary issues
- within thirty (30) days of becoming aware of the issue. However, the Parties recognize that
- circumstances and complexities of individual cases may delay initiation of an investigation.

Section 3. Investigatory Interviews.

- 16 (a) The employee's Union Steward shall be granted paid time off during regularly scheduled
- 17 working hours at a mutually agreed upon time to represent the employee in the
- investigatory interview (See Article 10, Sections 10 and 11).
- 19 (b) The Employer's notification to the employee of the investigatory interview shall include
- 20 the nature of the investigation.
- 21 (c) Both the Employer and the Union shall have the right to record investigatory interviews.
- 22 Section 4. Weingarten Rights. Upon request, an employee shall have the right to Union
- 23 representation during an investigatory interview that an employee reasonably believes will result in disciplinary action. The employee will have the opportunity to consult with a local Union Steward or Organizer before the interview, but such designation shall not cause an undue delay. 25 (See Last Chance Agreements, Article 21, Section 12). 26 Section 5. Suspension With Pay or Duty Stationed at Home Pending an Investigation by the 27 Agency's Human Resource Office. The employee and their steward of record shall be notified 28 in writing of the initial reason for the action within three (3) business days of the effective date of 29 the action. If there is not a steward of record, the Union will receive the notification. The Agency 30 will conduct the initial interview with the employee within thirty (30) calendar days of notification 31 of the action. The investigation shall be completed within one-hundred twenty (120) calendar 32 days. However, if the investigation is not concluded within the timeline, the Agency will notify 33 34 DAS and the Union of the specific reason(s) and the amount of additional time needed which shall be no more than thirty (30) days at a time. 35 Section 6. The Agency shall give the employee under Weingarten investigation, and their steward 36 of record, notification of the status of the Agency's investigation, every thirty (30) days until 37 completed. The investigation shall be completed within one-hundred twenty (120) calendar days. 38 However, if the investigation is not concluded within the timeline, the Agency will notify DAS 39 and the Union of the specific reason(s) and the amount of additional time needed which shall be 40 no more than thirty (30) days at a time. Upon completion of the investigation, the Agency will 41 provide the employee and their steward of record with written notification of the disposition of the 42 investigation. 43 Section 7. When an Agency is considering dismissal for a regular status employee, the employee 44 and their steward of record shall be given a written pre-dismissal notice. Such notice shall include 45 the then known complaints, facts, and charges, and a statement that the employee may be 46 dismissed. The employee shall be afforded an opportunity to refute such charges or present mitigating circumstances to the Appointing Authority at a time and date set forth in the notice, which date shall not be less than seven (7) calendar days from the date the notice is received or, at the option of the employee, by written response by that date. The employee shall be permitted to have an official representative present. At the discretion of the Appointing Authority, the employee may be suspended with or without pay or be allowed to continue to work as specified in the pre-dismissal notice. Should an employee be suspended without pay, the employee will first be afforded notice and right to present mitigating circumstances to the Appointing Authority or designee. Section 8. Dismissal, Reduction, Suspension Without Pay, Demotion, Written Reprimands, and any other form of Discipline. An employee, and their steward of record, shall receive written notice of the discipline with (a) the specific charges and facts supporting the discipline at the time disciplinary action is taken. Copies of pre-dismissal and dismissal notices will be sent to the Union headquarters (Salem) within five (5) calendar days of being issued to the employee. If the disciplinary decision is going to be shared in a meeting or in person, the Employer will notify both the employee and the steward of record. the employee may have a steward present with them either in person or virtually as long as obtaining a steward does not significantly delay the meeting. When the form of discipline is a dismissal, management will attempt to contact the employee or steward of record verbally to notify them of the decision. Suspensions with pay will not be recorded in employee personnel files nor in any manner used against an employee if no disciplinary action is subsequently taken.

70 The Employer will make a good faith effort to have the following statement appear on all dismissals and disciplinary notices covered in Section 4(a) above: 71 If you choose to contest this action you have a right to be represented by the SEIU 72 Local 503, OPEU. SEIU must file an appeal within thirty (30) calendar days from the 73 date of the discipline in accordance with Article 21. 74 Failure to include this statement will not void the actions. 75 Section 9. Employees in initial trial service with the State shall have no right to appeal removals 76 from state service under this Article. Employees in trial service as a result of a lateral transfer or 77 promotion who are returned to their former classification shall have no right of appeal under this 78 Article for such removal. However, an employee in trial service as a result of a lateral transfer or 79 80 promotion who is dismissed from state service may have their dismissal appealed by the Union under this Article. 81 Section 10. When an employee is the subject of an investigation that could implicate the employee 82 in criminal activity, their Garrity rights shall be observed. 83 Section 11. All notifications to employees covered by this Article shall include information about 84 how employees can utilize services provided by EAP. 85 Section 12. Failure to send copies of any discipline, pre-dismissal or dismissal to the Union or 86 steward of record will not void the actions. 87

| 3  |   |
| 4  | This Agreement is entered into between the State of Oregon, acting through its Department of    |
| 5  | Administrative Services (DAS), and the SEIU Local 503, OPEU (Union).                            |
| 6  |   |
| 7  | In the continued interest in protecting the privacy and safety of employees, the recommendation |
| 8  | from the committee on truncated names will be shared with state agencies.                       |
| 9  |   |
| 10 | Agencies will discuss these recommendations and develop a policy for their Agency by            |
| 11 | December 31, 2026. Agencies will share the policy with Union leaders for feedback.              |
| 12 |   |
| 13 | The policy could include, but is not limited to, any of the following actions:                  |
| 14 | 1. Name badges, business cards, and any public-facing employee lists could show only an         |
| 15 | employee's first name and last initial as their name or vice versa.                             |
| 16 | 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if a document, notice, letter, proceeding, or    |
| 17 | any other provision of law requires the name or address of an employee of the state of          |
| 18 | Oregon for the employee's official duties, the agency could redact the last name of the         |
| 19 | employee or substitute the agency address for the home address of the employee for              |
| 20 | safety reasons. In lieu of using a name, agencies may opt to use their Oregon ID number         |
| 21 | or official title in circumstances where it is sufficient for use in performing employees'      |
| 22 | duties in the regular course of business.   |
