1 ARTICLE 86--WORKLOAD PRIORITIZATION

2 Any employee may request assistance from their immediate supervisor in establishing 3 or adjusting priorities in order to carry out their work assignment. The supervisor will take 4 into account variables that impact the difficulty of assignments to the employee. The 5 employee may request to have the response provided orally or in writing, and the The 6 immediate supervisor will respond accordingly and outline a clear prioritization of the 7 employee's work assignments in a timely manner, unless such request is deemed to 8 be inappropriate or excessive. At the request of the employee, the immediate 9 supervisor will meet with the employee to discuss the prioritization.
