As a current state employee, you are considered an internal candidate and will use Workday to apply for job opportunities. As an internal candidate you can use Workday to leverage your worker profile summary to find and apply for jobs. Also, as an internal candidate, your application will auto populate with your worker profile summary and allow you to attach a resume and/or cover letter.

Step 1: On the Home page, click Career worklet.

Step 2: Under View, click on Internal Find Jobs.

Step 3: Select Filters on left side to specify desired open requisitions.
Step 4: Click on the job posting to view details. If you find an opportunity you would like to apply for, click on Apply.

Note: For each item you filter search through, the screen will refresh to begin narrowing down the results. You will also notice under the Current Search section, you will now have an option to Save.

If you plan on using the same search criteria again, simply click on Save and Name your search. Scrolling down on this screen, you will see a section titled Similar Jobs. These are jobs that are similar to the search results.

Note: Before updating your profile, you will want to make note of the requisition number. This will help you locate it when you have finished your updates and start the application process.
Step 5: If updates are needed, click Go to your profile to make changes to job history, education, skills, etc.

Step 6: If you updated your profile, return to the requisition of interest and click the Apply button.

Step 7: Review your application, attach any additional documents required (such as a cover letter or resume) and when you are ready, click Submit.

Step 8: Once you click Submit you should see a screen letting you know the process was successfully completed. Click Done.
Step 9: You will receive a task in your inbox to complete the Public Records Questionnaire. Please answer and click Submit.
