Browser Support

General Information

Workday tests its products on all of the latest versions of each supported browser. Workday may not work correctly with beta or pre-release browser versions, and use of these versions is not recommended.

Running Workday within multiple browser tabs can cause performance concerns.

Oregon state government employees are encouraged to bring browser support issues to the Workday team's attention. The Workday team may be reached at workday.help@oregon.gov.

All Workday supported browser updates are automatic.*
