POLICY

- (1) An employee accrues vacation leave based on his or her "recognized service date" which is established upon initial appointment to state service.
  - (a) The following types of state service are used to determine an employee's recognized service date:
    - (A) Actual hours worked in the classified, management, or unclassified service
    - (B) Time spent on paid leave
    - (C) Time spent as a seasonal employee
    - (D) Time spent employed with the judicial branch, legislative branch, or any entity the Department of Administrative Services has an intergovernmental agreement which specifies an employee's recognized service date transfers within the last two years from the date of appointment in the executive branch.
    - (E) Time spent on the following approved leave without pay:
      - (i) Peace Corps
      - (ii) Military leave
      - (iii) Family and Medical leave
      - (iv) Workers Compensation
  - (b) When leave does not occur for the reasons listed in (1)(a)E, the agency adjusts the recognized service date to reflect leave without pay over 15 consecutive calendar days. The adjustment reflects the actual number of days on leave without pay.

(c) Upon reemployment within two years of separation, the agency adjusts the recognized service date to reflect the break in service by showing the actual number of days separated. If the separation lasts longer than two years, the date of rehire becomes the new recognized service date.

(d) A reemployed seasonal employee retains his or her original recognized service date. Missed time does not affect the recognized service date, since the state credits each season as a “full season,” regardless of its length (unless the employee resigns before the end of the season).

(e) Accrual Rates

(i) Classified and unclassified unrepresented employees

- (C) The agency will include actual time worked and all leave with pay in determining the pro rata accrual of vacation leave each month.
- (D) With the approval of the Director of the Department of Administrative Services, an agency head may be granted any accrual rate listed in Section (1)(e)(A)(ii) not to exceed 19.34 hours per month to accomplish recruitment objectives or reward outstanding performance.

- (B) Seasonal employees accumulate state service credit toward the six month requirement from prior seasons worked, provided there is not a break of more than two seasons.

(h) Cancellation of Leave

- (B) In the event the supervisor must revoke previously granted vacation leave, the agency head or designee may approve reimbursement to the employee for non-refundable or non-exchangeable travel expenses. Non-refundable and non-exchangeable travel expenses include, but are not limited to, deposits and purchases such as airline tickets, vacation packages, and hotel or rental deposits. Reimbursements will be based solely on documented non-refundable or non-exchangeable out of pocket costs for the employee only. losing it.

- (ii) An employee who is in danger of losing vacation leave will receive notice of the impending loss with his or her paycheck on the first of the month. The first notice will occur two months before the loss will occur. The notice will repeat the following month.
  - (iii) An employee will immediately lose any vacation leave in excess of 350 hours if he or she fails to use the excess hours in the month before reaching the maximum allowable accrual.
- (B) An appointing authority may authorize cash payment for 40 hours, upon determining that granting of vacation leave is not appropriate. The designated supervisor must document the denial of the vacation leave request. Cash payout for accrued vacation leave must not be granted more than once in each fiscal year.
