Price Agreements – What are they?

A “Price Agreement” is a master agreement for the procurement of products or services at agreed upon terms. They can be used by all State Agencies and most local governments (OrCPPs). Price Agreements benefit agencies by obtaining price discounts and leveraging other concessions through volume purchases. Developed by DAS State Procurement Services*.

Also called:

- Master Blanket Purchase Orders (MBPOs in OregonBuys)
- Blankets (in OregonBuys)
- Statewide Price Agreements
- Price Agreements
- Participating Addendum
- Master Agreements

Price Agreements – What are the benefits?

- They are already competitively solicited and awarded.
 - Subject Matter Experts have been involved in their development
 - Terms and Conditions are set
 - Negotiations are done
 - Risks and Warranties have been considered
- They save time and resources

Who can use them? (Authorized Purchasers – APs)

- State Agencies
- Independent Agencies
- ORCPP members

Check the Price Agreement language.
