If you receive this letter after the start time for the job stated above, then this letter constitutes a new offer of the same modified job at the same start time on the next calendar day after your receipt of this letter, if the employer is open for business on that day, or, if not, then on the next calendar day that the employer is open for business. Regardless of when you receive this letter, please call the employer immediately at the following number to confirm your response to this job offer: [employer name and phone]. Your workers' compensation benefits may be adversely affected if you choose not to accept this job offer.

Under Oregon law, you have the right to refuse an offer of employment without termination of temporary total disability if any of the following conditions apply:

- The offer is at a site more than 50 miles from where the worker was injured, unless the work site is less than 50 miles from the worker's residence, or the intent of the employer and worker at the time of hire or as established by the employment pattern prior to the injury was that the job involved multiple or mobile work sites and the worker could be assigned to any such site. Examples of such sites include, but are not limited to logging, trucking, construction workers, and temporary employees;
- The offer is not with the employer at injury;
- The offer is not at a work site of the employer at injury;
- The offer is not consistent with existing written shift change policy or common practice of the employer at injury or aggravation; or
- The offer is not consistent with an existing shift change provision of an applicable union contract.

If you refuse this offer of work for any of the reasons listed in this notice, you should:

- Write to the insurer or employer, and
- Tell them your reason(s) for refusing the job.

If the insurer reduces or stops your temporary total disability, you may appeal by requesting a hearing. To request a hearing, send a letter objecting to the insurer's actions to:

Worker's Compensation Board
2601 25th Street SE, Suite 150
Salem OR 97302-1282

Sincerely,

I have read and understand this job offer. I accept this job as offered. Yes ____ No ____
