

Baby Promise Program

Do you have a child under three years of age?

Baby Promise offers free, full-time, year-round, high-quality early care and education for eligible families in Oregon with children aged 6 weeks to 3 years.

Have you heard about Baby Promise?

Baby Promise is available through qualified local child care programs to families living in eligible regions. The regions include: Multnomah, Crook, Jefferson, Deschutes, Coos, and Curry counties, as well as serving Reedsport.

You may qualify for fully funded child care.

Baby Promise helps families choose a qualified Early Learning and Care Program that works for them by partnering with local home or center based providers. Baby Promise Providers with slots for eligible families provide free food and diapers to Baby Promise children while the child is in care.

Multnomah County CCR&R
(Multnomah County)

NeighborImpact CCR&R
(Crook, Deschutes, and Jefferson Counties)

South Coast Early Learning Hub
(Coos, Curry, and the town of Reedsport)

For more information on enrollment and contact information, scan the QR Code.

Families seeking care must be eligible for Employment Related Day Care (ERDC.) While the ERDC waitlist is active, families must currently be on ERDC or meet a waitlist exemption. Families receiving Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) are eligible to skip the waitlist.