

Are you passionate about supporting children and families?

Explore careers in the Early Childhood Workforce!

Exploring careers in Early Childhood Education opens doors to a world of opportunity. This field offers a lifetime career pathway filled with rewarding experiences that are in demand now more than ever. From teaching to administration, there are opportunities for growth to match your interests and skills.

These are just some of the many career options, please scan QR code to view more!

Oregon Department of Early Learning and Care