The Oregon Board of Dentistry regulates the practice of dentistry, dental hygiene, and dental therapy in the state of Oregon.

The Board is required to investigate all complaints filed with the Board.

The Board may discipline a licensed dentist, dental hygienist, or dental therapist who violates the law.

The Board does not have jurisdiction over: fees, personality conflicts, rude behavior, or the scheduling of appointments.

OPTION

Discuss the complaint with the dentist, dental hygienist, dental therapist, or their supervisor.

Dentists, dental hygienists, and dental therapists are in most cases business people and are sensitive to complaints about their services. You may feel reluctant to approach the dentist, dental hygienist, dental therapist, or their supervisor about your dissatisfaction, but many complaints are resolved in this manner, and it might be your most convenient way to proceed.

OPTION

The Oregon Health Plan (OHP) has a process for dealing with client complaints and appeals. You may contact OHP Client Services at 800-273-0557 for general information and information on how to file a complaint. OHP accepts all relay calls or you can dial 711 for TTY. You may also submit a request using the OHP Client Services Request Form on their website.

OPTION

The Oregon Dental Association (ODA) has a peer review process. That process is confidential and available provided the complaint falls within peer review guidelines and the dentist is an ODA member. For more information about this process and its guidelines, contact the ODA at (503) 218-2010, or visit the Peer Review Page of the ODA website.

OPTION

A consumer always has the option of retaining an attorney for the purposes of bringing a personal injury lawsuit or other legal action against a dentist, dental hygienist, or dental therapist.

OPTION

File a complaint with the Oregon Board of Dentistry. Violations of the Dental Practice Act and the rules of the Board could result in disciplinary actions up to and including license revocation. However, the resolution of a complaint does not guarantee any damages will be awarded to the complainant.

HOW LONG DOES A BOARD COMPLAINT TAKE?

The investigation and resolution of a Board complaint is not a quick process and investigations of complaints involving multiple allegations and many witnesses would require even more time.
