Sept. 13-14, 2018, EQC meeting

Background From 5:30 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 13, 2018, commissioners and DEQ staff will hold a town hall-style session for engagement on environmental issues of interest.

The session will take place at North Ridge Estates, and DEQ will provide a short presentation at the start of the evening about the history of North Ridge Estates and the cleanup of asbestos contamination at the site. Following that presentation, commissioners will be available in an informal setting to hear concerns and questions about environmental issues in the Klamath Falls area and across the state.

This session is not a formal public comment time or hearing, and the discussion is not recorded. All are welcome and invited, and light refreshments will be provided for all attendees.
