

Hood River Electric & Internet Co-op (HR Co-op) is a member-owned, not-for-profit electric cooperative serving 4,000 electric meters in the upper Hood River valley.

Currently HR Co-op has not sold any of its CFP credits. We installed six EV Charging stations in our service territory in 2024; we will sell our credits in the future to recover some of the costs of those installations.