The screenshot shows a mobile browser interface for the AOL sign-up page. The address bar at the top displays 'login.aol.com'. The main heading is 'Aol.' followed by 'Sign up'. The form includes several input fields: 'First name' and 'Last name' (split), 'Email address' (with '@aol.com' pre-filled), 'Password', and 'Mobile phone number' (with a '+1' country code dropdown). Below these is a date selection section for 'Birth Month', 'Day', and 'Year'. A disclaimer states: 'By clicking "Continue", you agree to the Terms and Privacy Policy'. A prominent blue 'Continue' button is centered below the disclaimer. At the bottom left, a red arrow points to the text 'Already have an account? Sign in'. The browser's navigation bar at the very bottom contains standard mobile icons for back, forward, share, bookmarks, and tabs.
