Oregon Department of Human Services to preview priorities for the 2022 Legislative Session during Jan. 14 webinar

The public is invited to join Oregon Department of Human Services (ODHS) leaders online for a preview of the ODHS' priorities for the 2022 Oregon Legislative Session. This year's priorities are centered on the ODHS' commitment to equity and supporting human potential.

ODHS 2022 legislative priorities include requests to improve equity in service delivery; responding to emergencies and disasters; and to strengthen staffing to meet the growing demand for ODHS services. A presentation will be followed by a questions-and-answers session.
