

Date: May 27, 2014

Contact: Kristi Murphy, Policy Analyst for the ADRC, 503-373-2112 or kristi.m.murphy@state.or.us

Aging and Disability Resource Connection is Best Source of Info for Services and Support

The Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) of Oregon has launched a newly re-designed web site to better help Oregonians find services to address their aging or disability needs. When you are looking for information on aging or disability services, the ADRC of Oregon can help you learn about local public and privately paid options. The ADRC has trained professional staff who can help you and your family with immediate needs, or help you plan for the future. The ADRC of Oregon is a statewide resource for everyone, regardless of income level. Their new website is full of great information and new features including, Downloadable Planning for Your Future Tool Kit; Information about service costs, and a cost estimator; New search features which allow you to find services in your neighborhood, and so much more! Visit the ADRC Website at www.ADRCoforegon.org and check out their new website today! The ADRC of Oregon can also be reached by calling toll-free at 1-855-673-2372, or on their Facebook page at www.facebook.com/ADRCoforegon.

###