Governor's Commission on Senior Services will meet February 8 in Keizer

(Salem, Ore.) – The Governor's Commission on Senior Services will meet from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday, February 8, 2018, at 3406 Cherry Ave., Room 123, Keizer. The meeting is open to the public.

The agenda will include: regular commission business; an introduction to DHS Deputy Director Dr. Reginald Richardson; a discussion with the Rosa Klein Policy Advisor to Governor Brown on Human Services; a presentation on age-friendly communities; review and adoption of commission bylaws; determining a commission delegation to attend the Forum on Aging in Rural Oregon; and a dedicated work session for subcommittee business.

The meeting location is accessible to people with disabilities. For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, please contact Alex Pelusi at Alex.J.Pelusi@state.or.us. Requests should be made at least 48 hours before the meeting.

For questions about the meeting, please contact: Rebecca Arce, policy analyst at Rebecca.E.Arce@state.or.us.

About the Governor's Commission on Senior Services

The Governor's Commission on Senior Services is dedicated to enhancing and protecting the quality of life for all older Oregonians. Through cooperation with other organizations, and advocacy, the commission works to ensure that seniors have access to services that provide choice, independence and dignity.
