Community Forums in La Grande to discuss the vision for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities set for September 16 and 17

The Office of Developmental Disability Services (ODDS) is hosting a Community Forum in La Grande to discuss the vision for the future of services for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Ensuring the principles of self-determination is the core of our vision.

Who: People with intellectual and developmental disabilities who receive services and their families, as well as providers, Community Developmental Disability Programs (CDDPs) and Support Service Brokerages are encouraged to attend. (Brokerages provide services to eligible adults living in their own or their family's home to help them remain in their homes and be engaged in their communities.)

When: Wednesday, September 16 and Thursday September 17

- For people with intellectual and developmental disabilities who receive services and their families: Wednesday, Sept. 16, 2015 from 6 to 8 p.m.
- For CDDPs, Brokerages and Providers: Thursday, Sept. 17, from 9 a.m. to noon

Where: The Center for Human Development, 2301 Cove Avenue, La Grande

What: There will be a short presentation followed by a group discussion. This is one in a series of Community Forums throughout the state.
