Oregon LGBTQ+ Older Adult Survey results announced Sept. 14

Salem, OR – The Oregon Department of Human Services (ODHS) on Sept. 14 will share results from a survey of adults age 55 and older who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, Two Spirit and non-binary as well as sexual or gender diverse (LGBTQ+) to provide detailed feedback on the needs and supports of Oregon's LGBTQ+ older adults. Survey participants were also asked to highlight strengths within the state's various LGBTQ+ communities.

The Oregon LGBTQ+ Older Adult Survey, which was the first of its kind in Oregon, was led by researcher Karen Fredriksen Goldsen, Ph.D., a national expert on aging in underserved communities at the University of Washington.

The public and members of the news media are invited to join the presentation and question and answer session about the survey results.
