

News Release

Date: June 4, 2019

Contact: Elisa Williams, Elisa.A.Williams@state.or.us, 503-509-9604

Governor's Commission on Senior Services to meet June 13

(Salem, Ore.) — The Governor's Commission on Senior Services (GCSS) will meet from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday, June 13, 2019, at West Linn Adult Community Center, 1180 Rosemont Road, West Linn, OR, 97068

The meeting is open to the public. Agenda items include regular and new commission business, insights from the Forum on Aging in Rural Oregon, keynote and guest speakers, panel of local elected officials, and a public listening session.

GCSS seeks public attendance and participation in its role as the official state commission dedicated to enhancing and protecting the quality of life for all older Oregonians. Anyone with a passion for these issues is encouraged to join the meeting. Those who can't attend in person may call into the meeting using this conference line and access code: 1-888-808-6929, 4517555.

The meeting location is accessible to people with disabilities. For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, please contact Lori Watt at Lori.C.Watt@state.or.us. Requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance of the meeting. For questions about the meeting, please contact: Deb McCuin, program analyst at Debbie.Mccuin@state.or.us.

About the Governor's Commission on Senior Services

The Governor's Commission on Senior Services is dedicated to enhancing and protecting the quality of life for all older Oregonians. Through cooperation with other organizations, and advocacy, the commission works to ensure that seniors have access to services that provide, choice, independence, and dignity.

###