I am excited to announce that the Office of Developmental Disabilities Services (ODDS) has a new transportation web page.

This page gives information on criteria and services for ODDS transportation services and policy. Information on transportation elements authorized by ODDS, as well as eligibility criteria for transportation services is included.

The page is a resource for local transportation information. There is a searchable list by county of available public transit websites. There are also links to additional transportation resources and information.

In addition, a link to the ODDS transportation worker guide is provided.

More information and resources will be added to this web page in the future as needed. The ODDS transportation page is at:

<http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/SENIORS-DISABILITIES/DD/Pages/ODDS-Transportation-Services.aspx>. It also can be found as a tab under “Services and Eligibility” on the ODDS homepage.

If you have any questions, please let me know.
