Topic: Scam Alert

Provider: APD (Older Adults and Adults with Physical Disabilities)
 DD (Developmental Disabilities)

A man named James Roy Taber has been scamming seniors in long term care facilities in Washington County and other parts of Oregon. This scam involves charging residents for new hearing aids however Mr. Taber is not providing new hearing aids but is in fact placing new plastic covers over the original aids. This was and can be determined by looking at the serial numbers on the hearing aids.

Please let your residents and their family members or legal representatives know about this scam. Please contact your local Adult Protective Services office with any questions or to report any incidents.
