CAS (Central Authentication Service) Login

Double Login Issue

The double login issue in CAS will be corrected during this downtime.

In the past, the login page would time out. After users entered their user name and password, the system would return to a blank login page and they would have to login again.

After the downtime, a dialog box containing the following message will appear:

The login page has expired. Please select OK to reload page.

“Assisting People to Become Independent, Healthy and Safe”

An Equal Opportunity Employer

Password Reset Message

The message generated when users are unable to log into CAS will be changed as follows:

Unable to login?

Go to the QIES User Maintenance Application to reset your User ID/Password
