NF-22-020 – Provider Alert

Date: March 17, 2022

To: All Long-Term Care Providers

From: Safety, Oversight and Quality Unit

Subject: Masking Requirements Continue in LTC Settings

Although Oregon's indoor mask requirements were lifted on March 12, 2022, masking continues to be required in all Long-Term Care Settings, including nursing facilities, assisted living facilities, and residential care facilities.

Please see the attached letter from Interim APD Director, Mike McCormick to help facilitate communication of this ongoing masking requirement to residents' families and visitors in Long-Term Care settings. Please feel free to distribute this letter as needed.
