2. Summary explanation of the types of care and services we do not provide.

HOLI does not provide the following services on a routine basis: HOLI Senior Living is unable to provide medically complex diets, transfers that require more than two people, and we are unable to assist people who are at risk to themselves or others. We are also unable to care for people who have needs that are beyond our scope of practice, as regulated by the State of Oregon. We do not provide specific dialysis services.

Describe any health, nursing, behavior or care service you want a prospective resident to know the community is unable to provide (e.g., medically complex diets beyond the required modified special diets, two-person transfers, specific dialysis services, etc.)

3. If your needs exceed the care and services we provide, we may ask you to move out.

When your needs exceed the care and services we provide, we will meet with you to discuss the circumstances, attempting to determine the most appropriate care plan and setting to meet your care and service needs. If we cannot properly care for you at our community due to your increased needs, we may ask you to move to a more appropriate setting. If an agreement is not reached and attempts to resolve the issue are not successful, we may give you an involuntary move-out notice.

4. If you leave our community to receive acute medical, psychiatric, nursing facility or other care, we will conduct an evaluation before you can return to our community. Before you can return to our community, a qualified staff person will re-evaluate your condition and determine if our community can continue to meet your needs. If we determine we can no longer meet your needs, we will issue you an involuntary move out notice and you will not be permitted to return to our community. We will notify you of this determination as soon as possible and before you leave the acute care or other setting.

5. You have the right to ask for an administrative hearing if you disagree with our decision to issue you an involuntary move out notice.
