July 16, 2021

To: ODDS Staff and Case Management Entities
From: Lilia Teninty, Director, Office of Developmental Disabilities Services
Subject: New ODDS Policy Manager

I am very pleased to announce that Caitlin Shockley has accepted the position of ODDS Policy Unit Manager and is starting in her new role on July 14, 2021.

Caitlin came to ODDS in 2019 as a member of the children's team before taking the role of Person-centered Practices & Service Equity Coordinator. Before coming to ODDS, Caitlin was a Services Coordinator in Clackamas County, but she got her start in this field in the nonprofit world, leading statewide parent education, community engagement, and advocacy programs. Caitlin is passionate about centering equity and intersectionality for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in the policymaking process. Caitlin holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and a graduate certificate in Public Administration. She is a member of the Oregon Council on Developmental Disabilities (2015-present), the State Advisory Council for Special Education (2016-present) and is a certified Charting the LifeCourse Ambassador.

Caitlin was selected for the Policy Unit Manager position after a competitive interview process with stakeholder participation. Caitlin brings a depth of experience and passion to this work, her extensive contributions in the areas of policy, service equity, person centered practices over her career give her a strong foundation stepping into this role.

Please join me in congratulating Caitlin.

Sincerely,

Lilia Teninty
Director
Office of Developmental Disabilities Services
