

Provider Type	Does OAR 333-019-1010 (the OHA ‘Vaccination Rule’) apply?
Residential Services
24-Hour Group Home	Yes, this requirement includes all care providers, paid and unpaid, working, learning, studying, assisting, observing, or volunteering in a 24-Hour Group Home setting. This rule does not include residents with IDD living in the home. This rule also does not apply to contractors who do not provide health care services (i.e., home maintenance).
Adult Foster Care – including limited/provisional licenses	Yes, this requirement includes AFH license holders that live with AFH clients and any care providers, paid and unpaid, working, learning, studying, assisting, observing, or volunteering in the home. The rule does not apply to family members residing in the home who do not provide care. Nor does this rule include residents with IDD living in the home. This rule also does not apply to contractors who do not provide health care services (i.e., home maintenance).
Children’s Foster Care	No.
Supported Living	No.
In-Home Agencies	No.
Host Homes	No.
DSA and Employment
Day Support Activities (DSA) staff	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties they go into a 24-hour residential setting or an Adult Foster Care home for a meeting, or if they must go into the home to assist with transportation or other activities.
Employment Services staff	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties they go into a 24-hour residential setting or an Adult Foster Care home for a meeting, or if they must go into the home to assist with transportation or other activities.

ODDS Providers

Ancillary Services
Behavior Professionals	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties they go into a 24-hour residential setting or an Adult Foster Care home.
Nurses	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties they go into a 24-hour residential setting or an Adult Foster Care home.
Home modification and any other contractors	It depends: The rule does not apply to contractors who do not provide health care services (e.g., home maintenance, home modifications). It does apply to contractors that provide healthcare services in an AFH or group home including direct support staffing and other healthcare contractors.
CME and Other
Interpreters	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties they go into a 24-hour residential setting or an Adult Foster Care home
Services Coordinators	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties they go into a 24-hour residential setting or an Adult Foster Care home.
CDDP Abuse Investigators	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties, Investigators go into a 24-hour residential home or Adult Foster Care home.
CME Assessors	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties, Assessors perform an in-person assessment for an individual who resides in a 24-hour residential home or Adult Foster Care
CDDP Licensors	Yes, CDDP Licensors license Adult Foster Care homes and therefore are required to comply with this rule.
CDDP Eligibility Specialists	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties, they meet with an individual in person who resides in a 24-hour residential home or Adult Foster Care setting for things like re-determinations, psychological evaluations, etc.

ODDS Providers

Brokerage Personal Agents	Yes, when as part of their regular job duties, they go into a 24-hour residential or Adult Foster Home to provide crisis care coordination for someone leaving in home services to go 24-hour or Adult Foster Care settings, or someone in a 24-hour or Adult Foster Care setting moves to in home services.
Provider type	Verification: What is required?
24-Hour Group Homes	This information must be maintained and provided to ODDS upon request. If the provider/contractor is granting a medical or religious exemption the provider/contractor is responsible for reviewing and approving. The provider/contractor needs to document a plan to accommodate each exemption and maintain in their records.
Adult Foster Homes	This information must be maintained and provided to ODDS upon request. If the provider/contractor is granting a medical or religious exemption, the provider/contractor is responsible for reviewing and approving. The provider/contractor needs to document a plan to accommodate each exemption and maintain in their records.
All others listed above	This information must be maintained in Provider files and will be provided to ODDS upon request.