(5) Give care and services, as appropriate to the age and condition of the individuals, and as identified in the ISP. The provider must be responsible for ensuring that physicians' orders and those of other medical or health professionals are followed, and that the individual's physicians and other health professionals are informed of changes in health status and if the individual refuses care;

(6) In the provider's absence, have a substitute caregiver on the premises who can provide care or services as required by the age and condition of the individuals.
