The appropriate party, as stated in the notice of termination, must receive the appeal within 10 business days of the notice of termination.

(3) INFORMAL CONFERENCE. The program manager or the designee of the program manager at the local office of the Department, CDDP, CIIS, or Support Services Brokerage must conduct an informal conference, as described in OAR 461-025-0325, if requested by a personal support worker within five business days from the receipt of an appeal. The informal conference may be held by telephone.

(4) ADMINISTRATOR REVIEW. The administrator review process allows an opportunity for the Department, CDDP, CIIS, or Support Services Brokerage to review and reconsider the decision to terminate the provider enrollment of a personal support worker. The administrator review may include the provision of new information or other actions that may result in the Department, CDDP, CIIS, or Support Services Brokerage changing the decision to terminate the provider enrollment of the personal support worker.

(a) The first level of an administrator review for a termination pending an appeal as described in OAR 411-375-0070 is performed by a program manager or the designee of the program manager at the local office of the Department, CDDP, CIIS, or Support Services Brokerage. A provider termination may be overturned at the first level of an administrator review and provider enrollment may be reinstated. If the first level of an administrator review results in a provider termination being upheld, a new notice of termination with a new effective date shall be issued to the provider by the program manager or the designee of the program manager. A provider has 10 business days from the effective date of the notice of termination to appeal the notice with the Central Office of the Department.

(b) The second level of an administrator review for a termination pending an appeal as described in OAR 411-375-0070 is performed by the Central Office of the Department. An administrator review by the Central Office of the Department is the only level of review before a hearing with the Department for an immediate termination described in OAR 411-375-0070.

(c) A written response of the outcome of an administrator review shall be sent to the personal support worker within 10 business days from the receipt of the request for an administrator review.

(d) If the administrator review determines that the decision to terminate the provider enrollment was unjustified, the provider enrollment for the personal support worker must be restored to active status and any earned benefits must be reinstated. The written response of the outcome of the administrator review must notify the personal support worker that the provider enrollment is restored.

(5) OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS.

(a) A personal support worker may file a request for a hearing with the Department if all levels of an administrator review have been exhausted and the personal support worker continues to dispute the decision to terminate the provider enrollment of the personal support worker.

(e) No additional hearing rights have been granted to personal support workers by this rule other than the right to a hearing on the decision from the administrator review to terminate the provider enrollment of a personal support worker.

(6) BURDEN OF PROOF. The Department, CDDP, CIIS, or Support Services Brokerage has the burden of proving the decision to terminate the provider enrollment of a personal support worker by a preponderance of the evidence. Evidence submitted for a hearing is governed by OAR 137-003-0050.

(7) REQUEST FOR EXTENSION TO DEADLINE. The Department, CDDP, CIIS, Support Services Brokerage, or the personal support worker may request an extension of the 10-day deadline for circumstances beyond their control if further information needs to be gathered to make a decision or there is difficulty in scheduling a meeting between the parties.
