Message:

ODDS staff will present several Compass Project trainings in the coming months to prepare those who work in or receive services in Oregon's intellectual and developmental disabilities system. The trainings will be offered on Workday or by webinar. Information on these trainings including signup links can be found on the Compass Training website at <https://www.oregon.gov/dhs/Compass-Project/Pages/Training-Center.aspx>.

These trainings are open to all audiences, however, there may be a specific focus for certain audiences. Topics include the Compass Project overview, Oregon Needs Assessment, service groups, exceptions, unbundling, and billing for Direct Nursing Services, Professional Behavior services, transportation, employment, etc.

The training website will be updated at the end of each month with registration information, dates, and links for upcoming trainings. Recordings of completed trainings will be posted at <https://www.oregon.gov/dhs/Compass-Project/Pages/Past-training.aspx>. Online modules will be in Workday when they become available.
