Action required:

Office of Developmental Disabilities (ODDS) requests that CDDPs submit info for adults who are enrolled in 24-hour residential setting and receiving nursing services as described below. The goal is to identify individuals who are receiving the following supports in a 24-Hour Residential service setting (DD50)

- Individuals who are on a ventilator
- Individuals who have a tracheostomy
- Individuals who receive suctioning
- Individuals who are on oxygen
- Individuals who have a G-Tube
- Individuals who have a J-Tube
- Individuals who have a central line infusion
- Individuals who are on dialysis
- Individuals who experience seizures
- Individuals who have an IV

- Individuals who experience recurrent hospitalizations

A spreadsheet will be emailed to the following CDDP directors by April 16th.

Baker County	Linn County
Benton County	Malheur County
Clackamas County	Marion County
Clatsop County	Multnomah County
Columbia Community Mental Health	Polk County
Community Living Case Management	Tillamook County
Deschutes County	Umatilla County
Grant County	Union County
Jackson County	Mid-Columbia Center Living
Klamath County	Washington County
Lane County	Yamhill County
Lincoln County

If a CDDP not listed here believes they serve individuals who reside in a 24-Hour Residential Service setting (DD50) and who are receiving the services identified above the CDDP should contact Kirsten immediately.

CDDPs must return the completed spreadsheet to Kirsten Collins by May 14th.

Reason for action: This information will allow ODDS and Burns and Associates to evaluate and address the need for nursing or complex medical support services in 24-Hour Residential settings in preparation for rate changes in the second half of 2019.
