Effective February 1, 2017, the Office of Developmental Disabilities Services (ODDS) has identified the role of field liaison in order to better support service coordinators and personal agents. Mariah Forrest will be the field liaison for all questions related to adult services and Shelly Reed will be the field liaison for all questions related to children services.

What is a field liaison?

A field liaison will be available to:

- identify the appropriate subject matter expert to address your questions,
- respond to crisis or urgent situations

Please find the attached list of program specific experts for the policy unit.
