WORKERS' COMPENSATION

The OHCC covers homecare and personal support workers under workers' compensation. OHCC helps them file claims if injured on the job.

COMMISSIONERS

Nine commissioners appointed by the Governor for up to three (three-year) terms make up the OHCC.

- » Five commissioners are homecare services' consumers.
- » The other four represent Department of Human Services Aging and People with Disabilities Program, the Governor's Commission on Senior Services, Oregon Disabilities Commission, and the Oregon Association of Area Agencies on Aging and Disabilities.

Independence

Quality

Choice

for older adults and people with disabilities

The Oregon Home Care Commission is committed to ensuring the following for older adults and people with disabilities:

Quality of in-home services and workforce

Choice of best worker and services to fit each person's needs

Independence to thrive at home and in the community

In 2000, Oregon citizens voted to amend the state constitution to create the Oregon Home Care Commission.

The OHCC serves Oregon's:

- » Older adults and people with disabilities
- » Children and adults with intellectual or developmental disabilities and
- » Adults experiencing mental illness.

HEMOCARE AND PERSONAL SUPPORT WORKER TRAINING PROGRAM

The OHCC offers statewide in-person and online trainings for homecare and personal support workers. The trainings enhance their skills and the service quality they provide.

HEMOCARE AND PERSONAL SUPPORT WORKER OPPORTUNITIES

- » Professional certification programs for career advancement
- » Community health worker training for homecare and personal support workers
- » Certifications in CPR/first aid

CONSUMER-EMPLOYER TRAINING PROGRAM

The OHCC offers free training to consumers who hire homecare and personal support workers. It helps them become successful employers. They learn about interviewing, writing job descriptions and good communication skills.

REGISTRY

The OHCC has a Registry that matches employers with homecare and personal support workers. Workers provide routine, emergency and respite care to help people stay at home. The Registry is available 24/7 on the internet.

MISSION

- » To define the qualifications of homecare workers
- » To offer a statewide Registry of homecare and personal support workers
- » To provide training for homecare and personal support workers, and consumers
- » To serve as the “employer of record” for purposes of collective bargaining for homecare and personal support workers
