October 2019 Agenda – Approved

September 2019 Minutes – Approved

Monthly Training Report

- Kris Eisenman and David Vining went over the Training Report. For September, 47 new Professional Development Certifications and 28 new Enhanced Certifications were approved. Kris reported that there was an increase in call activity for the month of September.

Family Care Giver Course Update

- Kris reported that Roberta Lilly is in the process of scheduling meetings in November, December and January in order to formulate a course of action.

Marketing

- David suggested using social media (Facebook, Twitter) as an outlet to advertise classes to providers. He led a Mind Mapping (brainstorming) session where marketing ideas were shared with a goal in mind. David suggested placing flyers in local offices. Loyce Edwards added that the flyers should also be posted in non-speaking English languages.

Scheduling Remaining Meetings for 2019 (added to agenda)

- Rebecca Hill suggested that meetings for November and December should be deferred to different times. It was agreed to cancel the December meeting. Kris said she would meet with Roberta regarding the November meeting.

Future Agenda Items

- Update on Senate Bill 1534.
