

Is offering
HEALING PATHWAYS

Healing...

EOCIL is offering a weekly peer facilitated group called Healing Pathways, for women 18 and older living with disabilities and depression. Healing Pathways is provided free of charge. Healing Pathways is a peer-implemented group that has shown value in treating people living with disabilities and depression.

Community...

You can develop new supportive relationships within a small group of peers living with disabilities and depression.

Empowerment...

Work together with a team of peers who are interested in a better quality of life by learning new skills to empower YOU!

If you are interested in joining or have any questions, please call us. If you are not certain if you qualify, but need support, please call a member of our team below:
