

Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution

Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution is in Pendleton, Oregon. Nestled at the base of the gorgeous Blue Mountains of Eastern Oregon, Pendleton represents the heart of western heritage. The home of the world-renowned Pendleton Round Up where the western culture of independence and self-sufficiency is kept alive and well by the community. Shopping is available downtown specializing in western wear and you will find fine dining experiences throughout.

The area is an outdoorsman's paradise with easy access to hiking, hunting, ATV off-roading, and fishing locations that will take your breath away. Winter activities like skiing and sledding are just a short drive away. With four very distinct seasons, there is a time of year for everyone.

Cultural opportunities are also available with museums and historical sites like the Pendleton Underground which can transport you back in time to another era. Finally, if you are just looking for an afternoon of fun and distraction, the Wildhorse Resort and Casino is just 10 minutes away. It features a movie theater, bowling alley, fine dining, golf course, and a casino.

Located on Interstate 84, Pendleton is approximately three-hours away from the Portland area, or a quick drive into Washington to the Tri-Cities. There is a small airport in Pendleton if you prefer to fly to your next destination. With activities and amenities galore, Pendleton is an open and welcoming community and we invite you to join us in this western paradise.