Coffee Creek Correctional Facility to sponsor career fair

Coffee Creek Correctional Facility (CCCF) in Wilsonville will be hosting a career fair on Friday and Saturday, June 3 and 4, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. CCCF is currently recruiting for a variety of career opportunities.

Professionals in security, food service, physical plant, counseling, mental and medical health, and administrative support will be available to discuss the qualifications and skills needed for these areas of interest. Attendees may also receive assistance with applications, register for testing, and take tours of the facility.

Those wishing to attend will need to bring valid photo identification. Attendees may not wear blue denim, camouflage, or suggestive clothing. Cell phones and cell phone connectable watches cannot be taken inside the facility.

CCCF is located at 24499 SW Grahams Ferry Road in Wilsonville. For information about the career fair call (503) 570-6412.

CCCF is a multi-custody prison in Wilsonville accommodating all of Oregon's female inmates (approximately 1,260). The prison has cell and dormitory housing, inmate work programs, skills training, treatment programs, health services, religious services, physical plant, a central records unit, and administrative areas. CCCF participates in prison industries with Oregon Corrections Enterprises, including a contact center, auto CAD, and document scanning. In addition, CCCF houses the state's intake center, which provides intake and evaluation of all inmates committed to state custody by the courts. The intake center houses approximately 400 male inmates. CCCF's minimum facility opened in 2001, and the medium facility opened in 2002.
