I. PURPOSE

The purpose of wellness promotion is to improve the health and well-being of Oregon Department of Corrections (DOC) employees’ lives, by increased self-awareness, through health education and workplace health promotion activities that will support positive lifestyle changes. Supporting healthy lifestyles improves productivity and morale; reduces the number and severity of injuries and illnesses on and off the job; reduces the drivers of sick leave utilization; and, reduces insurance utilization and premiums.

The establishment of a Wellness Advisory Council and work site wellness committees will assist with the DOC’s promotion of wellness.

II. DEFINITIONS

A. Central Services: Department facilities located in the Salem area where functional units perform centralized functions. This includes, but is not limited to, the Dome building, Central Distribution Center, Central South (Human Resources), Office of Population Management, Health Services and Behavioral Health Services.

B. Executive Team: The DOC executive leadership of the department that provides direction and oversight to department operations.

C. 8 Dimensions of Wellness: refers to the 8 different dimensions of wellness which are Emotional, Spiritual, Intellectual, Physical, Environmental, Financial, Occupational and Social wellness.

III. POLICY

A. Membership

1. Wellness Advisory Council:

   a. The Wellness Advisory Council shall be established to advise and guide DOC Wellness Committees. The focus will be on employee whole health and the primary drivers of increased health care costs including tobacco use, poor nutrition, lack of physical activity and employee stress and depression.
b. The Wellness Advisory Council shall be comprised of representatives from the following areas: AFSCME Security, AFSCME Security Plus, AOCE, multiple institutions and representation from each DOC divisions.

2. Wellness Committees:

a. Work sites shall establish a local wellness committee. Each wellness committee shall be responsible for promoting a healthy work site.

b. Each wellness committee will appoint a chair person. The chair will be the liaison between the work site wellness committees and the Wellness Advisory Council. Any data and statistical information, and wellness related information will be communicated from the chair to the Advisory Council for proper reporting on the Governor’s Wellness Council Statewide Scorecard.

B. Employee Compensation

Employee representatives attending local wellness committee meetings or Wellness Advisory Council meetings shall be compensated by the employer at the regular hourly wage or according to the appropriate Collective Bargaining Agreement.

C. Financial Responsibility

1. DOC: The Department may authorize allocation of funds annually for wellness committees to purchase incentives related to wellness. Additionally, any money that DOC obtains specific to wellness initiative fundraising will be deposited in the appropriate cost centers and used for activities approved by the Wellness Advisory Council Chair or Designee.

2. Work Sites: Individual work sites may collect funds in conjunction with their wellness committee. Work site wellness committees are akin to employee social clubs, and any money in a wellness committee bank account is not owned or managed by DOC. Any bank accounts set up to benefit the individual worksite must not have DOC affiliation. In the event that an individual wellness committee chooses to spend their own finances on an activity, they will do so out of their own bank accounts without using DOC funds. In the event that individual wellness committees choose to donate assets or funds to DOC, they can accomplish that through contacting the DOC Accounting Unit.

D. Guidelines

1. Under the guidance and administration of the Wellness Advisory Council, and in conjunction with the wellness committees, DOC will promote wellness by:

   • Sharing responsibility between the Department and its employees
   • Providing educational information with health promotion themes
   • Encouraging locally–based activities where interest and resources exists
   • Promoting employee awareness and utilization of existing benefits

2. Not all resources and activities will be available at all work sites; however, every effort shall be made to provide the core components of wellness themes (nutrition, fitness, stress management and financial health) when available.

3. Activities:
a. Fitness activities such as walking or running at lunch, breaks, and before or after work, are encouraged.

b. Wellness committees may also host fitness classes, such as yoga, aerobics, or stretching.

c. Wellness activities that require the use of a conference room must be approved through standard processes. Business meetings will take priority when there are scheduling conflicts.

d. Wellness activities must not interfere with normal operations. Activities will invite participation on a voluntary basis; and they must not create safety risks for participants or others.

e. When planning wellness activities consideration should be given to all 8 dimensions of wellness.

4. Wellness committees have a very important role in disseminating health and wellness materials to DOC employees. Every effort should be made to include health and wellness topics in meetings, distribute the materials and information to employees, and look for opportunities locally to participate in wellness related activities. Wellness promotion program topics may include, but are not limited to:

- Fitness
- Nutrition
- Financial health
- Stress Management
- Injury Prevention
- Tobacco Cessation
