

Issue Brief

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Powder River Correctional Facility

Powder River Correctional Facility (PRCF) is a minimum-security prison located in Baker City. PRCF opened November 9, 1989. PRCF serves as a transition and re-entry facility for the Oregon Department of Corrections. Program-eligible inmates preparing for transition from prison back into their communities are sent to PRCF for alcohol and drug treatment. PRCF's New Directions Alternative Incarceration Program (AIP) is a 128-bed treatment program for qualifying inmates. Inmates in this program are assigned to a highly regimented program that includes a daily routine of 14-16 hours of treatment, education, and transition classes in conjunction with institution and/or community-based work.
