

Issue Brief

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Snake River Correctional Institution

Snake River Correctional Institution (SRCI) is a multi-security facility that opened in August 1991. In 1994, the Oregon Legislature approved construction of the remaining beds at a cost of $175 million, representing the largest single general-funded public works project in state history. Construction was completed in 1998. SRCI is Oregon's largest correctional institution and is located in Malheur County near the Oregon/Idaho border.
