RULE TITLE: Duties and Assignments

NOTICE FILED DATE: 06/17/2026

RULE SUMMARY: Amends rule to make minor clarifications or grammatical edits; and clarify that prioritization of duties and assignments may be determined by the local state director, in addition to the supervisor or their designee.

RULE TEXT:

(1) Among the duties of the Department of Corrections parole and probation officers articulated by statute are:

(a) To make investigations in connection with granting, revoking, or modifying parole, post-prison supervision, transitional leave, local control, probation, or conditional release as required by the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision, courts, or Department of Corrections;

(b) To provide supervisory services and interventions to people released on parole, post-prison supervision, transitional leave, local control, or probation who reside in this state, with the goal of reducing the probability of continued criminal behavior;

(c) To keep informed concerning the conduct and condition of people released on parole, post-prison supervision, transitional leave, local control, or probation who reside in this state, by visiting, requiring reports, and making collateral contacts;

(d) To make reports to the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision, courts, or Department of Corrections as required;

(e) To execute any arrest warrant on a person who is under supervision on parole, post-prison supervision, transitional leave, local control, or probation status; and

(f) To perform any additional duties as directed by the local state director or the Department of Corrections Assistant Director of Community Corrections.

(2) The prioritization of duties and assignments shall be determined by the parole and probation officer's local state director, supervisor, or their designee.
