

Arizona Mining Journal
Oct. 22, 1941

Mormon Basin
~~Baker~~
Malheur

Oregon

Machinery formerly used by the Gold Cluster mine on Chicken Creek near Huntington, Oregon, has been acquired for use on the Rainbow mill dumps in Mormon Basin near Baker, Oregon. William Phalen, Rural Route, Huntington, Oregon, is in charge of the tailings project. E. B. Young of Baker is owner of the property.

Rainbow Mine
(Gold)

Mormon Basin

Malheur
County

Charles H. Kapschull of Deerfield, Illinois, is operating the Rainbow gold mine in Mormon Basin near Huntington, Oregon, under a purchase contract with the owners of the property.

Allen Russell, Ernest Boylen, both of Portland, and D. W. Briggs of Boise and E. B. Young of Baker, Oregon, are the principal owners. About 20 years ago the mine was operated with the Sunday Hill group of claims by the Rainbow Consolidated Gold Mining Company. In recent years individuals have worked the property intermittently.

Mining Journal
June 30, 1945