

Oregon

A small crew is employed by Mitchell Smith and W. J. Reed of Huntington, Oregon, at the Randall gold mine in the Mormon Basin district near Huntington. Last year a shaft was sunk 60 feet at which point high-grade gold was encountered. A drift has been run on the vein at that level. The property is owned by Mrs. J. V. Randall of Baker and associates.

June 19 1943